B. - does not come, as usual, to Capo di Monte, - for giving a good holiday to the others in the other Villa (Caldana). All the "ladies" however from Capo di Monte were invited in the afternoon to tea and entertained with great Merriment . . .

Today, when he doesn't come, the important reply comes from Anchor line, offering accommodation, as desired, on "Circassia" - early.

Mar. 31/37 - Excellent berth, but rather too early, & a bit costly. But if it suits B. . . Nothing Matters. <sup>in the morning</sup> The letter, with explanation & estimates etc. is sent to him. - He sends a reply verbally that he will think over the two alternatives - Cir. & V. Ind. - and will cable tomorrow.

Sup. discussion at night - at Caldana - per. passage looking by "Circassia" which he prefers to V. India, being earlier & better. The rate of £20 2 party allowance ~~was~~ 107 - (Cable cables to Anchor & P.O.) late at night
