Police Inspector Anderson - (of the Baylor Police) came this morning for inquiries about the Western Group - v. polite & understanding, and quite a contrast to the one Sub-inspector Mr. Guarkan who had come a few days back for the same purpose, was explained, but couldn't digest & felt uncomfortable here (as he himself said to me, A.) and he was a Hindu. Mr. Anderson on the contrary, though a Christian, listened patiently to all that was explained, was deeply impressed with the ideas of Love & Selfless Service etc. & asked for the latest issue (Sept.) of the journal to read.

Arrive Mysore early morning by passenger - Mr. Sri Rangacharya and another officer receive at station with a servant - drove in their Sedan to the Modern Hindu Hotel .... At 7 the Executive Engineer Mr. Krishna Rao came with Mr. Sri Rangacharya, and we drove to the Yelwal bungalow. During the drive, he wanted to know More B... was explained, expressed a want to meet B... to bring also his wife .... He showed me round the whole bungalow - the furniture, & other things available were listed out - our requirements carefully noted down by two of the office clerks who were ready there (for chaining, pelehung etc) .... All <sup>very useful</sup> consideration & shown indicated the full of the help of the Secretary - the Secy - besides as he himself explained "Mysore's hospitality to its visitors we want all who come as our guests to be happy" .... Considering our requirements, <sup>for secluded ladies, he</sup> ordered as the two private roads to be closed during our stay ...

Traffic Manager, Mys. Railways, also gave details about a special train proposed to be run on 12th of Bangalore to Bidadi.

Mr. Subramana Iyer - was too pleased to know about it all .... offered all hearty cooperation as he said "It is the God-blessed Mysore itself that a Master like B. comes and does all this for the Sp. Uplift of the people ...."

Mr. Chakravarti also said many interesting things @ the Secy's & the Maharaja's office all Adi & Padri arrived by car with 95 Rs. for Mahad <sup>co-operation for the cause</sup> and work.

Many arrivals this evening from D. Bay.

B. is closeted with the Mast about 2- to 2-30 pm. in Bud's room - After which the Mast gets rowdy, rushes out the room and with the

of him and manages to bring him in again, though with difficulty.
B. remarks - He is good & he likes him, but he won't stay. Such types who are accustomed to a free living in the open (even tho' in juffars) won't like to stay with in stone walls. . . . . (see below *)
The Committee Meeting - held today at 3 pm. at the huts - lasted

* B. further explained that these type of Masts who are called "gangs" do not prefer company of mankind, nor do they like to remain within four walls. They at times separate parts of their body during the night and for that reason would not like men to be near them

R. & party leave Bangalore at 3 p.m. & arrive Mysore about 6 p.m. - 2 cars & 1 bus - received at the turning off station & taken to Jeeval bungalow.
Everything arranged, but something, as usual, must be & was missing. The Patron had not arrived till late at about 8 p.m. & they had to ~~arrange~~ <sup>arrange</sup> with dim table lamp - rather difficult for new comers, & in a huge <sup>old-style</sup> bungalow like this with long several passages & many distance bet. one wing & another. R. put them (ladies) all in one wing for the night, and slept himself in the other with the 5 of the Mandali (Boudin - Mr. - and Padu-jal - Chappi) - It was a lovely night, and they all were taken on the terrace to view the beautifully lighted hill (Chamundi) & the dazzling elec. lights of the Mysore Dussera Celebrations.... But the moment they were up & were copying the bond copy view, R. was called down, as the Water bus arrived, rather late, with a tankfull of water, & patron's lamp, chatters, etc..... The department people worked till about 10 p.m. filling in the tank with buckets and left after tea.

The Memorable day - B. finishes his Month of "Seclusion" & Fast today. As such, the day Must be Memorable & full of events

(1) The Meal from Carlton was hopeless, every way, both in Quality & Quantity - which were too poor. Even tho' we explained & complained @ this yesterday, the Curry had was none better. Everyone was disappointed & we planned to get Meals elsewhere from tomorrow. This evening we had to leave early to go to the Chamundi Hills, so we had an early meal of - with bread butter. On telling the prop. (Parsi) <sup>Sam</sup> Juyarwalla, he first accepted, tho' not too willingly & openly, but later came out with a different tone demanding fulfilment of the agreement for 4 days. The ridiculous & rather arbitrary demand was rejected, at first mildly, but when he tried to threaten & threaten us, we pulled the lot of the poor ..... and left him after giving him a few words from the also "eking" Most Unbusiness like a attitude etc. .... It is such a pity, Paris always had one reason or another given B. little satisfaction. I have always been unfortunate in having any dealings with B. ... This was one of the typical instances

(2) While going up the Chamundi Hills, we missed the Motor route (due to obstinacy of B.) and went by a Karcha & narrow road with v. risky gradients & curves. It was a breathless drive, all feeling uneasy every moment. Fortunately however, B. stopped midway & ordered a return. For a big bus with over 30 passengers to climb this dangerous hill gradient was too risky, but we were saved in time: otherwise, a return would have been impossible. We saw the Ch. hill temple. B. took the G. group first - & showed them all the 7 steps - structures etc. explaining the Sp. Significance of the figure with of places.

On the return route, we passed by the New route - across the Palace, beautifully lit. More round

(3) While moving round slowly off to Maharaja's Statue, a car came from the wrong side & dived along J's car, damaging the Mud-guard on the right. The driver began to screech, but was caught by one of the hand-donkey on the foot board of the moving car & holding the wheel. A demand was made to attack Ch. for the back - Ruffler. B. calls up ... & altho' the accident was serious & driver drunk, we left it all & joined the party back home -

The Dussera procession — This afternoon, our group went to the Shani hospital premises, where a special balcony (all enclosed) was reserved for us by special arrangement. (On the other side was the Dewan's party). 2 Screens were provided & toilet arrangements were also made ... all perfect....

The famous procession started at 4 and passed or till about 5 ... Altho' not quite pompous and disciplined as those in the West, it had its own <sup>beauty,</sup> dignity & a natural aspect of a solid foundation behind it all ... (No empty show) ... all, esp. Westerners liked it much....

B's significant remarks after it had finished, about the 60th Dussera: "that this was the last Dussera he celebrates. That is why B... is here today." — About the USSR B. remarked, "though good at heart, he is weak."

All this a dream... this procession etc. good dream, fighting, bombing as in War, a bad dream — a nightmare — yet all illusion —

 during which he said that he had lost all faith in Spirituality - given it up was now going into economic & political problems etc. ... He said that there was no spiritual crisis, but there was the Military or economic crisis etc.
 Desh. explained that that was due to <sup>all</sup> Sp. crisis etc. In spite of all the better experiences, he repeated today to Desh. that he found in B. the love he didn't find anywhere else etc. ... that he wanted to change his opinion but the

To the Dewan at 10 - with Nov: 2 Jal Ker. - honest talk -
The Dewan said - he has heard v. good reports & B's gesture in giving the poor peasants time to reap the Crops has been v. well taken and has made a v. good impression on all.... The difficulty of getting the Crops removed by 30th could be well adjusted some other way, without creating any ill feeling or spoiling the impression -
..... Will see to it & instruct... advised Ch. to go to De. and explain to him every thing, with orders from the Dewan to do the needful.

The D.C. was just going out for a walk in the Sun - after a weeks confinement in bed due to illness, and we drove right by his Pede, explained and took her in, at once, the moment he volunteered of his own accord.... B. with the Masto. (2)
He was made to sit there for ~~that~~ a short while, in the presence of B. & breathe in that sp. atmosphere, and also see B working.... v. much impressed with B's work & with the impression he had created
