Leave Bombay by the Madras Express (Moon passenger, over-crowded & Mess) chance for connection at Sholur remote (not in new timetable) unless the passenger was late & B. wanted me urgently early morning for his work. Our train (Exp) ^{itself} was late by half an hour at Sholur & there were no hopes of the passenger being detained so late as that. But to my surprise it was still there - over-crowded - yet with ample room for us in a third carriage attached for Sholur.

The Happiest Day of His Life! —

Today was the Happiest Day of his life for 4532/29-
 9-20-43! His whole-hearted Surrenderance to B. with all that his — his wife, children, all properties & belongings, that he so longingly desired to dedicate at His sacred feet imploring B. to accept it all!

The love and depth of feeling with which he laid himself and all his at His feet being known to Him, B. accepted it all, with love and blessings. But — at the same time, gave him definite instructions, not to give up service, nor to dispose of other things immediately as he desired, but wait till November, when he would call him over. Meanwhile, definite instructions were given re: important details Pension, 4532, 20300/20 etc.
