Wednesday - 10 June 1927

Early morning, the parcel of Persian books ordered from Bombay for Rasht was opened. Three sorted out books from this parcel as well as from the bundle of Persian books brought from Ashraama (selected of the Rustongi stock). - Then he appointed Mr. Rasht to teach Persian Grammar 3 hours a week - i. Rasht to teach Pers. Text - one hour daily, using his Text books alternately. (A typical example of Shree's personal interest, exertion as Supervisor in every minor details).

I was then asked, if an office peon was required to look after, clean & arrange all office articles etc. and ^{appointed} Shankar Nath, as such - a boon to P. Office Today was the Marriage day of Valubai's daughter in Arangaon, where Shree & party were invited for special meals. Accordingly, the procession started, with the Native band, with Shree in front, and the Mandals with glass plates, following. It was a typically peculiar sight - this "Fakiri procession" - Arrangements at Valubai's house were nice, but the closed and narrow rooms, with only ONE door, & a window in front, particularly in this hot season and at Koda, reminded one of the 'Black Hole'. It was horribly hot. Chai was being, after the usual "Pay ceremony" by the host, and then the "lunch" - the ^{menu} articles were peculiar - Mango juice with Maroni, Shahi, Vada, Papad, Bhutkar etc. - And all gave ample justice to it. Shree said that he had come here, simply because of Val's devotion alone (for him) for Shree.

The party returned after "Par-Sapari" at @ 11.30

Then again, Milk tea was given to all at 2 pm, at M'ashrama, with the Sweet (sugar) The tea was very tasty, tho' too sweet.

Rangn arrived at 3 pm. (after 10 days' leave) (Shree asked F. to give immediate replies to letters of Bal. - Khod. - others.)

Mr Sath's family paid a visit to-day, and all stayed before Shree for more than 3 hours. During general talks, Shree pointed out (to one Mr Janawalla - Mr Sath's brother-in-law, a r a border-inspector at Mappur, a very loving sincere (Phakka) that B. Jas. has lost 2 of his ^{last} fingers, which, he said, were actually eaten away by worms. B. J. used to put on the worms accidentally falling down on the ground, again on the ground, and didn't mind either the ^{severe} pains or the loss of these. So also, did Shree suffer from a boil, inside the external portion of the mouth which gave much trouble & severe pains some time, yet he did not care. - Happy are all Saints even in greatest sufferance.

At night, there was a little down pour of rain, again to day, and presented an aspect as if much rains would be forth coming. This was a confirmation & a further proof to the one ^{already} given on the 28th by the first down pour of rain, repeated again to day i.e. on the 1st, as promised (to Padra on 25-8-27).
The weather was cold throughout the Night, a terrible wind blew, as if to shake the building from their very foundation.

Thursday - 2nd June 1927

Usual Thursday Visit.

Mr. Ch. was given leave (for his marriage on 6th Inst. at Malegaon) and one Science graduate teacher - Mr. Phadke - was put in as a Substitute, during Ch's absence.

After 10 a.m., a general discussion was carried on in the P. M. Office, re: education. Pandora suggesting that education had spoiled Indian family virtues & traditions etc. Shree however remarked that education anyway is better than ignorance. It is it does much good, if not physically, mentally. It is a step to advancement, progress for betterment, & he would any time, & anywhere say & declare that Education is & does good. The system may be defective, even bad, yet you can't blame the one for the other (system for education itself) - Arguments were exchanged between Mr. Law & J. Jay, who gave a nice ratio to Law's argument ^{as to} that improvement could one show in the work of a "Bhangis" (clearing & removing the nuisance, refuse) even if a Bhangis be educated - say a B.A.

Bhau Sahib gave a nice treat of Bhajan from 4 to 5:30, as usual. Shree then went to the Ashrama, returning after an hour & a half.

At 7 pm. the New Low C.P. Petroleum lamp was lighted, in the presence of Shree, & the Mandali school boys (after the usual coconut-breaking ceremony), amidst the hail of cries of $hi-hi-hi$ at the first ^{moment} glow of light. There was a very strong wind blowing, this evening, & Shree warned that if anything happened to the lamp, it would clear off in the opposite direction - i.e. - his usual typical threat.

Usual story at night.

Friday - 3rd June 1927

Nothing particular - except Rust's visit to Nagpur in the afternoon ^{to see the B.S.P.} with ref. to Latha's case proceedings. He waited there for a very long time & was on the point of rejoining when the B.S.P. arrived - the matter discussed & everything arranged. Then the B.S.P. enquired as to Shree's workings & lectures & said that a friend of his - the son of Matthew Arnold, who is much interested in the Spiritual life & the Studies, & who has come over to India to study Buddhism. Rust. asked the B.S.P. to send that gentleman once to Shree - etc

(Pr. - General discussion on Shree's workings, particularly his circle, & Bailey, who it is said is the first recipient of something Supernatural from Shree. Yet most unfortunate of the Circle - a small - ^{Shree = train} Baby = track, Gurd = Dr., Bel = friend, Sadasiva = Campbell etc etc. & others = carriages, who = God kinds. Now, when once seriously ill was helped & promised by S. Baba that the Arch. will try then best to take him in the C. - Baby = soul.)

Saturday - 4th June 1904

One thing particular - At a meeting held in the afternoon in the office to discuss arrangements for going to Amravabad tomorrow - who to go etc. In the ^{middle of} this discussion, there asked adi to go out & call aloud. The God of rain to send rain - this evening adi took it lightly, went out & called out adi adi - slowly. He was asked once again to call out aloud - which he did - and to the surprise of all, terrible wind began to blow. Soon after adi left here, and in the evening there was a down pour of rain, and the storm clouds presented an aspect of a heavy down-pour - threatening tomorrow's visit to Amravabad. ^{rather clouds} Although start was to be taken early at 5 a.m. ^{no} ^{particular} ^{almost} were given to the members, who went to bed with ^{almost} no hopes for going in the morning.

Sunday - 5th June 1897

The weather had become cool as a result of yesterday's rain, and it was still cloudy. Yet three came out early morning, and exactly at 6 had been in the station when all were asleep. On his orders, all were awakened.

Monday - 6th June 1917

The first half of the day passed, without any particular incident worth noting. Then at @ 2 pm. the tops of a scarcity of rain being opened, three skinner Wamas (Babes) & then to Vishnu, to go out & cry aloud, calling "Rain to come down. It was horribly hot and the sky absolutely clear, yet strange to note that at @ 4 pm, clouds began to gather, then wind, then thunder, and then there was a very heavy shower of rain - the heavy being in the large chopps (like sea) - as if to respond with equal force to the cries of a man with larger size Wamas. There was an entire change in the weather, thereafter, yet strange again to note, the rain subsided. from 6, absolutely stopped @ 6.00 till late at night - the interval being checked and kept clear as if, for three party to attend to the Marriage ceremonies & celebration of procession the Wamas, for @ an hour. The players of the music - particularly the drummers (see Wamas) showed ^{some} dexterity skill in beating the drums, which

Then the party approached. After the procession was over at 2 p.m. - three the Mandala stopped at In Ashram.
- had tea there. Some stray discussions. Three at first spoken of "one" - Rakidars - having surrendered everything to him one day, and going crazy after him. put his blessed hand on his head etc. etc. Quite - sat - sad.

The same case happened here - the old Pongfoulmen, a relative of his father, who had been coming to see three every morning and who had crested and increased as was said to be
- having gone crazy. The Pami was introduced to three of him in the temple day - at father's - & his very first visit had impressed him immensely, to the extent that he commenced coming to three's darshan every morning - on foot - rising at 4 am.
It was also reported that he had no sleep even at night, particularly after seeing three. Five 4-5 days back he came as usual, & surrendered everything to three - his watch, Kutchi even clothes - and three blessed him & placed his hand on his head.
After going home that day, he began to show signs of craziness - he throw off his clothes, & almost naked, began to throw stones at those that were near him for explanation or preservation.

She was taken to her relatives in Bombay, where it is now reported, she goes about naked, & almost in rags, abusing & beating those that come around (like a hunchback).

This expression of one's feelings in such undesirable way, is no good. The feeling & the anger should be controlled, checked, and gradually brought to submission. Then alone would one be enabled to come in the Maṇḍa (moderation). Otherwise such behaviour is nothing but an empty show - which when subdued would give no earthly benefit to the man, and less put the unfortunate man in an awkward light of position before the world, where people take him to be "one out of his wits" - & should he be fortunately checked in the beginning, well & good. Otherwise, he would really go mad, & put by his own relatives people into an Asylum: Such flow of feelings does arise to those who are prema but that should be controlled, & let out exhibiting undesirable acts & movements (like Man, Sah, & others - both of whom are now quite happy with their wives & family, in spite of so much prema (that etc.)

Tuesday - 7th June 1920
Nothing particular - except Sherie going inside (Lad.) 3-4 times staying there. Sherie's boat (boy) in the mouth seemed to give much trouble.

A boy (Nun.) of the Ashams having placed some mischief with one of the teachers (Nun.) reported. Sherie punished him, in a typical manner - as king each of his Asham companions to give him a slap, which seemed to affect him much.

There were some stray discussions in the evening (with Rang-Pan) re: Sherie's lectures - working in the past, particularly as the Lupode & at Lualaba.

Yesterday - there had been to Dr. about a young Lanyazi, who had been on a pilgrimage since he was 8 years, and desired to go on 5 years more. He belonged to a Wednesday 7th June 1927

Nothing particular to report during the day. At night, the party went to Brangan to witness a Marriage Ceremony & Festival. While returning, stayed at the Ashram, played Abhyas & time, had tea, and then returned at @ 10 pm. While returning, I gave ^{abruptly} some nice hints as to the future working of TUNE etc. (vide - separate Notes of the day) (1)

Thursday 9th June 1927

Usual Thursday Visits. & Bhajan by Bhau Sahib, in the office. To-day, I gave nice explanation, during general discussion, Thrice. (1) at @ 10-30 when Anna related the arrival of a "Chauvankari Yogi" in Nagpur, who could play with several ^{big} Cobras on his bed etc., who had been to Satole etc. - On "Powers - Good & Bad" - Then (2) while discussing & settling the struggle bet. Good & bad, on "His Special Method of working" & (3) some hints & advices to Mr. Sahas family on "TRUTH - butlers of husbands & wives etc." (vide separate notes for all these 3.)

Friday 10th June 1927

- The Memorable 10th June -

The morning marked the arrival of a party of Hindu ladies from Upcountry (not's mother, and's mother-in-law, and other women ^{acquaintances}). They were expected to wait. Waited at Benches. Shree called them.

- (1) Then, Shree & the party went to Nagar (at @ 9.30 a.m.), to attend in the "Mung" ceremony at Mr. Sath's. Unfortunately, the arrangements there did not suit Shree's dignity & position, (the guests sitting & chairs etc.), and the Mandan did not think it advisable that Shree should stay there, so all returned with a very short time. While returning, Raja marked Shree & the party ^{as they had none at all, & that they should not return to his place for tea & a treat, and Shree are going the same, Raja} gave a nice treat to all - a good recompense for their visit in the morning.

On arrival here, after having kept here & there in the school for a few minutes, Shree went in (to the class) and came out after @ 2 hours. ^{They} gave a darshan & visit to the party of ladies who had arrived there ^{from my} waiting since morning under the tree with all his disciples. Meanwhile, they had waited cheerfully, of course with a keen desire.

of Shree's daughter, as early as possible. Yet, they didn't feel the thing of time were cheap. Shree was pleased to see it, as he had specially tried their anxiety.

In the afternoon - Mr. Godbole, the retired Asst. (2) Commissioner, Central Division, paid a visit to Shree with a sincere desire of his sacred Darsan. Asked what he desired he expressed a keen desire for nothing else but Shree's Blessings - & Grace. He explained that he had had retired from service, had nothing materially to anxious for as he was well off every way.
But he wished them to lead his life - the few years that were now left to him - during retirement - rest - in perfect peace & divine meditation etc, which, (Peace of Mind) he sincerely believed, he couldn't have, except thro' the blessings & grace of a Saint (Guru) etc, & which he craved for, & for which express purpose he had been here. Shree said - (or repeated the same several times whenever asked during conversation) that "He shall have Shree's Blessings & Grace. He was too pleased & satisfied at Shree's words & assurances, and said he will always visit him there whenever he comes to Nagpur from Poona, where he had stayed

This day is the much remembered day of 10th June (some thing important Must happen) (did happen) the first two are already described. Other 3, are as under (3). The old Karachi Special (late "Punjab. Mail" - 1855) arrived from Nagas today after a very long time, being required for general work of Gud's gardening, and Shree had the first trip with few others & nephew, a joy-ride which he enjoyed to Dr. Ashram, almost exactly after one year (Shree missing about enjoying a ride in the same way this time last year).

(4). Another novelty of the day was the arrival of a New Muhammadan boy, Gulam, his bold & clever for his age (c. 7 yrs) to have ventured on a journey from far off to Shree, all alone, having been harassed & persecuted by his parents & relatives, who seemed to have no mercy for a small child like him, as could be seen from the marks of severe, rather hard hearted beatings by them, on his hands & body etc. Asked how he happened to come over here, he explained he heard of "Mehar-baba's" name as a benevolent helper & savior of the poor & the needy etc, and ventured to run away to Shree to escape the persecution of his parents etc. The

Seemed to Smart for his age, particularly his speaking, & clever replies & vivid description was wonderful. (May be below par, as hinted by Shree). He was kept here. It gave a most amusing treat to all at night, when he rudely refused to sleep on "Jannies" (301) & would slide down on the bare ground ^{even during ~~light~~ sleep} when removed from there on to the jannies, specially spread, and made the Mandala to run about in all five corners to spread jannies on all sides & remove place him on the lawn. But he would not. It was even finally decided that Kaik should take him to his own beddings, & sleep with him. & as was reported by Kaik the next day, he gave his much trouble during the whole night. However, it went on alright.

(5) Atiya-Patya game was played tonight, near the School building, in the powerful light of the 400 C.P. lamp, and was thoroughly enjoyed by all, as the Ashram boys & members too were detained (after Chh) to partake in the game, which proved very interesting, and to complete the nice programme, special milk tea was served to all after the game. The tea prepared tonight tasted splendid.

Bakri - Idh day

To day, being the Bakri-Idh day of the Muslim calendar, the school was kept closed - half a day. The Muhammadan members in school, (being Kar-a-bad), were ordered by Shree to take bath, have their sacred Kirmay (in the Bazar) etc. & observe all the religious rituals possible. Besides, in commemoration of the day, a Koo-party, with sweets, was given by Shree, at 2 p.m. to all the students as well as school boys. Shree also gave New dresses to the school boys at school on this their Great Holiday. Shree's regard for people of all religion, their holidays & religious rituals etc. was never partial. Consideration for the observance of all religious rituals or holidays, ^{thus keep} & a sacred administration & love for their religion was His special Characteristic, His Honour was quite beyond all these formalities & rituals etc.

Rashid (K.D.) showed some disregard for the observance of such his orders by Shree put into execution by Bab, who assists at the Ashram, and also expressed a willingness to leave here.

at first, to which Shree gladly ^{arrangements were} permitted, and ~~actually~~ made to send him off to Mr. With Somebody from the Mandala to go with him up to Bombay, and board him in the boat for the first time, to-morrow (Sunday), but God knows how the tides turned in the evening, when, asked by Shree in the Ashram, as to when ^{he} he intended leaving here, & where he desired to go, he expressed a desire to stay, to the surprise of all. Shree would be only too glad to keep him, but the nun exacted a promise on sacred oaths that he (Ravi) will henceforth behave well & obey all orders (by Bra. & Pand. others), which he willingly gave, and he was kept. Thus, what once appeared undesirable & unpleasant ended in a happy result. Yet, how costly! how smoothly!

To-day's mail brought letters & applications for admission to Dr. Ashram, from Persia by some influential party who, on reading the advertisement for the New Ashram, being impressed by the same, had expressed a desire to send boys here from their land. A reply was ordered to be given to them by Mr. Karkh.

Ref. & his mother went by the evening train. Ref's Son expressed his ^{own} willingness to stay here in the Ashram as was kept here by three.

The day has been ^{stingy} cloudy, and the weather was very chilly in the evening, with cold wind blowing.

Atthya Pitya was played at night. From the School till 10 p.m.

Sunday 12th June 1927

The day being a holiday, Atthya Pitya game was played in the Morning for @ an hour before ka. At @ 10 a.m.

Three abruptly came in the office, & commenced discussion on the Ashram, to be extended, as a large number of boys was expected. The discussion was then extended to: what if future Ashram to be permanent, decided etc. re: water arrangements, permanent building for Ashram to be on the hill etc. (will detail notes of the day)

Visitors - Anna, Mother Raja, & others paid a casual visit.
- had discussions with Three etc.

Another noteworthy incident of Sherie's foretelling powers could be judged from the following incident - that when he went inside the L. apartment as usual at 2 pm., he "spoke" that he would come out after the rain's stop. It may be asked, that there were no signs of rain, much less falling; the sky being clear. However, within a few minutes of his going in, clouds began to gather, & showers began to pour down. & stopped exactly before 3, when Sherie came out (his usual time of 1 hour of coming out).

Roller was presently asked to be rolled on the new A patch which (rolling) quite improves the state of the patch.

A stroll to arrange after meals (by the hand of Sherie) but he soon had me seated on the ground for a quiet chat. The bell was heard ringing, and we had to return to find that the song was early (8.15 before the usual hour), as Sherie had ordered the song to be played till late at night 10.30 pm. Tea was served after the game, and all retired for sleep at 11.

Heavy rain poured down throughout the night; and there was an entire change in the weather.

Monday - 13th June 1927

Sh. returned after his 10 days leave for his marriage is freshenies etc. and the Charge (of R.) given over to him. The confusion caused during his absence in tracing books etc. was brought to his notice & he explained that he knew what ^(books) he had in stock etc.

Shree's Aunt (B. Man) arrived this morning from Karachi. Quite abruptly. Shree took her to the ladies' dept - had a conversation with her. She was then asked to be taken to the Ashram to meet her 2 Sons, with money - & returned by the evening train for Dab.

To-day, there was a small accident at the Ashram. A tile from above the roof fell on a boy's head, and made a wound which bled as could be expected. Shree felt much for this, his mood was changed, and he was severely taken to task for this negligence etc.

To add fuel to fire! In. Muner. was brought here again from Vagar, by his Jansawalla & his friends, with a complaint of some trouble created by him at home, & a request to Shree to keep him here. He was accordingly kept here, he himself too having expressed a desire to stay.

After settling his affairs, Shree gave a nice piece of advice to the party of the Parsis - accompanying him Jassowalla, the latter family ladies) on - ^{The Essence of} 1807th Reckitation - Mind - Sab-Sang - Prayers & Ceremonies & Rituals of Religion etc etc. (note separate notes of Shree)

After the party had gone, Shree entrusted his son to self with instructions to look after his arrangements every way.
Roller-milling on the ground was supervised for @ 6-30 pm, or after after meals & Aarti, Atiya-patya was again played to night with tea served in the end.

Tuesday - 11th June 1927

A discussion as to who should explain all the boys of the ash the ^{Special} instructions given by Shree, was carried on, and it was eventually decided that Ruk & Kait were to accompany Shree every night to the Ashram at 8 pm. from the 14 July 1927 to explain Shree's instructions to the boys - Mr. Ruk or Mr. Kait, if any is tired in for having sacrificed her everything (family, money etc.) for her sole desire to get some Spiritual Knowledge & advance in the line; it clearly declared that Gov. was not at all a Mahatma. He was a wonderful man indeed, but not a Mahatma, in the real sense & Spirit of the word (for he was not realized). And she explained the reason of her disappointment - that it must come to that. For she came with a true & sincere desire to "know" something (Truth) from Mah. Gandhi, whom she believed, from public reports, to be a Saint, which he was not. Besides, instead of hearing something of Truth from the Ahmedabad Ashram (of Mah. Gandhi), she ^{regular} ~~clear~~ of Khadi & Swadeshi, day & night, ^{must} ^{have} actually ^{all} disgusted her, and quite naturally, she returned disappointed, at her hopes frustrated, and sacrifices lost to no purpose. But she will be benefited. For this disappointment will do her much good (Spiritually) - For she won't now take to worldly affairs, & will try with her own efforts to get true knowledge in this, from as many sources as are available possible, & that will one day bring her in connection with some real Saint, who will guide her aright).

Publicity Fame - following - Explaining further, ^{all activities by} she said that there is always a wide publicity given to such political & Social leaders, which is not given to others. Otherwise there are thousands & thousands of ^{unknown yet} silent sufferers - real jewels - more wonderful than a thousand jewels. Petit put to further, sufferers who could fast for ten times longer period than Ghandi, without any fear & more cheerfully too. Yet, it is the way of the world that if a ^{or a Ghandi} Petit were to observe a fast for five days, the papers of the world would make a sensation over it, simply because they are politicians, & are in the public's eyes. while, one more real & sincere, a better sufferer than these, would be in oblivion, for he is not known to the people. And if there was such sensational publicity that this poor former lady was misguided & enticed towards India or Ghandi, for both of which, she will now write very strongly. She should have been to Mahatma (at Sakori) instead, & she would have gained much-fulfilled her desires. For Mahatma would have explained & convinced her about Truth & Realization (even keeping an interpreter)

But unfortunately for her, she went to the wrong man & place for fulfilment of her desires which were much higher for them to satisfy. Setting aside all questions of Spiritualism, what a poor opinion she well have had of the most unsanitary premises, and the dirty ways of living of the Indians - which she had a very bad & disgusting experience. (A comparison with their principles of purity, cleanliness here, which were most strict disciplinary - leaving aside the question of this Spiritual problem In that respect to, all the arrangements, particularly those of the Ashes were unique & splendid, and worthy of any up-to-date modern institution of its kind - rather better. Had she been here, she would have had, at least a strong impression of the nice arrangements here, every way, if nothing spiritually. - But leave that.
"Disappointments are good. They do much good. Shattering of the brain is desirable. It stops too much thinking, altho' the desire does not vanish.
It makes its own way - peacefully, slowly yet steadily, from other directions & is sure to gain its end some day - even after a run of disappointments - by coming in contact with One real - Perfect One - who could guide him aright."

Three had been to the Ashram since 10 a.m. & remained there for some hours - till 6 in the evening. Many changes & due arrangements were made there. Mr. B. & Rev. both taken severely to task - in his usual fashion - for indifference, and were pinched so much that they both got desperate as to "pack off" - But after the storm, came the pleasant quiet, everything being settled & smoothed wonderfully.

During the time that Three was ^{at} the Ashram there was strong rain for about 2 hours, drenching everything, and making an entire change in the atmosphere. The flock of geese & sheep sought shelter in the School verandah, front & aft, and the hum was actually bowed alive under these so closely thick & up to one another for warming themselves. Nuss was taken out with much difficulty, and it was very strange, he was absolutely unhurt, without even a scratch - although actually covered all round by their feet. Some half a dozen of the geese were reported were drowned & carried away by the floods - due to heavy rains. (Some 2-3 saved, in D'Abad, too from dying of cold - chill, being unable to move or even to get up). The rain was plenty, much more than expected, and never heard of for the last 3-4 decades?.)

Visit by Kh. Sahb. at the Ashram, where he had a long chat with Shree. He showed much enthusiasm & love than usual, warmly greeted Shree and went late at night at @ 9 pm. with his family.

The rain subsided at @ 6 pm., when Shree came to the School: after @ 8 hours stay at the Ashram. At @ 7 pm. a party of Hindus came for Shree's darshana in host. The party included Mr. Chairman of the Local Board & his friends.
He had come with a view to ask Shree's blessing in the next election of the Seat of the Council, vacated by Mr. Forde. Shree had already given word to Mr. (Khalak), however he said that he would try for a next (second) chance.

The dispute at Patils was reported to Shree. I was for peace of the villagers here who hardly came for Shree's darshana - yet always came
- appealed to Shree for settlement of any dispute whether arising, which Shree always settled to take faction.

Heavy rains last night, the members in the Mukher had actually to shift from one place to another, as the roof was leaking. The rains didn't stop till @ 6-30 a.m. and all were actually waiting for the same to stop - to go to the school.
We therefore sent some umbrellas for the members, who were then called to come to the school, where the school principal & both were taken to task for being late. Excuses would not do. Their presence must be prompt.

Coming to disorder due to heavy rains, the Ashram boys were called late at @ 8 a.m. - all to be carefully covered, & brought under the shelter of Umbrella provided for the purpose.

The heavy downpour of rains caused Shree to ^{be} ⁱⁿ speak on the Subject - of Rain & thence to the relevant issues, as to who sent it - God, Maya, Satoh - the Creator, Created, Creation etc. etc. (vide - special notes of date). In the midst of this lecture, the arrival of Doctor (Ganny - from Lonavla) was announced, & he too stood amongst those ^{who} listened to Shree's lecture.

A Parse gentleman - Mr. Dashur, an M.A. & L.B. - came this morning with a desire of Shree's darshana, & some private talk. The gentleman seemed to be in some financial difficulty & sought Shree's help, which Shree offered a promise to get him relieved of his troubles, provided he promised ^{in return} to stay here, & do the work Shree entrusted him (of writing out in good ^{descriptive} English, Shree's undisclosed secrets, & workings etc.
