Invalts, teachers appointed, tuwa-table fixed etc
- new books ordered out. - The new Termis Court was almost ready & practice done on the 21st (books returned on Tuesday 23rd for London).

Am It may be marked - from the events transpired that Ranj, who promised to return in 10 days, but after ward asked for further leave of 5 days - granted, got fever, & illness - (breaking the promise) then again after the expiry of the 5 days he further asked permission for 5 days more on grounds of the near election ~~of the Ashram~~ - granted - & then (cause the reports that there was a Hindu disputes disputes at Talejam etc, meaning 'breaking' of Shree's orders - promises does much harm, will spite Shree's shopkeepers not putting his mind in it - There were similar instances elsewhere - in Ranj's case, as also in Case of Sai andree (K.) whose disregard of Shree's promise entailed much disrespect harm

Thursday 25th - Choral Thursday Vants - Bhajan by to the Ghore (Bairi's) accordingly Swami went to-day. He shed tears Friday - 26th (before he departed) Panna went to Bhai by the morning train with a Nagal boy & a dhoti Nothing particular except Shree's going to the Ashram in the afternoon - playing Q. with the boys - So day being Ravi's Birthday, Swami & Bhaji's were ordered to be prepared & distributed first to the Ashram boys, then to the Mandala (an exception of Shree's consideration of everyone's case) Shree Friday evening to 7, that he didn't like coming over here to the hill & to dinner - wishes to discontinue all as was done last time etc. why? for Saturday - 27th Rain in the afternoon @ 3:30 pm. for @ half an hour. Sheer - mandala to Nagar, being invited by Shankernath's friends & relatives, to say being the last day of Shevrasa - A warm welcome from the very beginning by saying "Sai" - Nice reception & splendid arrangements for Bhajan & darshana for all - @ 5:00 hundred people had darshan, while the Bhajan went on. Tea & sweets served -

- Stayed for over an hour & visited the new temple erected on return visit & returned at 6:30 -

~~Mr~~ Then came the thunder - some of them met by specific methods of detecting a culprit & tracing the Crime to its very
- Source, getting out every confession from the accused etc. -
- First report by J. Khan re: stolen money - She's first examined Jahan's pockets - found pieces of Cigarettes (and) - enquiring the
- falsehood - curiously - abruptly questioning to Sub. he's read half a
- suspect - supplied by J. - Confession - Then to Rahim Khan &
- Khan. all confessed - by J. caught him belly lies for more than
- an hour - however he finally Confessed, as by one way of
- even stealing money - paid over - sub driven away
- & that order for him to enter station etc

Monday 29th Aug (contd)

Some 2-3 figures moving in the dark were well. She raised a cry of enquiry but instead of reply they disappeared, & he at once raised an alarm, but in spite of the prompt convey out of the Mandala; they escaped in the dark, and after half an hour of looking here & there & shouting at the Mandala members went to bed.

This incident recalled to mind the saying that the words of a Saint never fail. They come true, and how wonderfully these words proved true can be seen from today's incident.

(To be taken on 30th Aug) ^{were being} Whelton points, explained to the Doctor, she spoke with ref. to his own writings that there has never so clear an idea of the Subjects handled by him - Only the Hindu Scriptures (Upanishads) found some points - none else. His book will be the Father Gita, Avesta, Quran - Bible for the world.

known to him -

M At 2 am. She opened the window & enquired of Gust if every thing was alright, to which the latter replied in the affirmative & after a few minutes she closed the window & went inside. A few minutes later a whistle of warning sounded, echoed & re-echoed by Night watchmen - the mandali gave a prompt reply by getting up & carrying out to find out what the matter was. On enquiry it was found out that one of the Night watchmen (on duty here

Sunday - 28th August

This morning, Shree gave us nice lecture on explanation, before Doctor - Put. (vide Dad's notes)

Sunday visitors - general discussion of Cr. match with King's Cr. Club - special feature Shree's splendid stand at the back of time is when there was a collapse - 7 wickets being down for a party of 10 runs - and his splendid wicket - Keeping performance Shree's 3 consecutive wickets - leading to an eminent defeat. It was characteristic to make Shree coming out the best of time and his game to day was lively - as if himself enjoying the same. Unfortunately he was made run out the fault of F. To day's was the first match that the M. club team won, thanks to Shree's timely assistance in batting, as wicket-keeping. He was hurt at 2 different places, playing without fear, and in the 2nd innings. He abandoned the game owing to this injury. Put. a Adv. hit out severely in the 2nd innings to be hit out for 40 - Shree also played game before
