Leave Srinagar at 11 AM. after early morning preparations for a start. The boy - Adair - accompanying, so that the party are ready.

Start at Panikhal @ 12 noon - meal bread-butter - start - puncture in mid-way @ 2 pm - terribly hot - while the puncture is being done, B. talks with Rav under the shade of a tree re: the boy Adair to be sent back to Kashmir - (a surprise indeed?). Rav explains Adair.

The whole journey from Kashmir to Jammu was somewhat but not pleasant, as it was horribly hot in some places, besides the motor movements, particularly curves innumerable made the occupants giddy. Even B. was affected & I was all a bundle of nerves between 2 seats, to keep up on the saddle, to avoid chukka (jitters).

After arrival at Nagar station, Vishnu sent to Sato's place to bring all correspondence & B.D. 20 too, and B. & party proceeded on a Kotcha & tonga to Mabad.

Meals distributed by B.: personally - including Sunt Sweet etc. brought by _____ of Sakore, who met quite accidentally at Mauwad on his way to Kopergam - accident 'dushkura' amidst a crowd of passengers, all pilgrims proceeding on pilgrimage of Shandhapur - we had left the 5:30 AM train early in over crowding & took the 6:40 train but there again was the same tale, being overcrowded. However B. got convenient place to sit.

Preparations made for B. & Rev. Vishnu to sleep in on the hill & rooms cleaned etc.

Rev. J. J. gave an apt of affairs here, during B.'s absence - all well - No complaint.

21st leaves by 4 pm train for Madras - over over - pack off in haste - train 1 hour late - At Shod too, mad boys late & crowded - engine failed after leaving Shod - halting in the way for 2 hours - then let off at full speed -
