

These Yogas & Samadhis do take one in places, but upto the 4th plane at the Most, & he further. For it is in this fourth, that there is a great stopping (check) - neither further advance, nor return (to the lower 3-2-1 planes). Upto the 3rd one can go & come back in 3-2-1, as his will & power of his concentration (samadhi) but Not in the 4th. Once there, he is there, Same times for centuries, even thousands of years. (example of Arjuna - lying in samadhi for thousand years, being pushed forward by the grace of a Sadguru). If the Yogi (in the 4th) leave his body - i.e. dies, while in the 4th, he again takes birth in the same plane, But if, unfortunately, he succumbs to the Charms of his powers, and endeavours to make use of these powers in making Miracles (samadhi), he is doomed. For, then, he drops down to the Stone state or leaving his body (i.e. death). This is the Result of going in darkness, and without a guide (guru) to show the proper way, and hence. (dangerous to such an extent. (4th Gien &))

Shri Swami Sahib of Akalkote is said to have Slapped one (mist) in the 4th plane, saying "Raudh-baji samadhi - Gien &". and this slap sent that Yogi, from the 4th to the 4th state, that moment. The Swami Sahib here meant the "powers" when he said Raudh-baji, but the unknowing world took it in the literal sense of the word began to imagine 1001 thoughts etc

The first part of the paper is a list of names and dates, which appears to be a record of some kind. The names are written in a cursive hand, and the dates are in a more formal script. The list is organized into columns, with names on the left and dates on the right.

The second part of the paper is a series of paragraphs of text, also written in cursive. The text is somewhat faded and difficult to read, but it appears to be a narrative or a report of some kind. The paragraphs are separated by small gaps, and the overall layout is somewhat irregular.

The third part of the paper is a list of names and dates, similar to the first part. This list is also organized into columns, with names on the left and dates on the right. The handwriting is consistent with the first list, suggesting it was written by the same person.

The fourth part of the paper is another series of paragraphs of text, similar to the second part. The text is again somewhat faded and difficult to read, but it appears to be a continuation of the narrative or report from the second part.

You will, or understanding. That is an easier course, if you are fortunate enough to get that

For - if one at all desires to reach the goal to Truth, one must burn & consume oneself (over one's self)
in that desire, without any other considerations of mind,
body & soul - which is most, most difficult.

(It is to use desiring for tea - sitting in M. abed.
You must leave that place and walk here - to get that tea, that is not only to desire, but weary oneself - burn oneself for that)

Comparison of Miri & Duri

The Miri that a Sadguru has: the (human) body 1
- Vajra - = the shadow of " 2
- an ordinary man - = the shadow (no water) of this shadow (or) 3

All this is very very difficult to be attained to, or acquired - without the aid of a Sadguru. Hence it is that a Great man (An important personality known & recognised in the world as a "Mahatma") like Gandhiji, - who does really seek for light & Realization - wishes to Make or have a Guru.

Because, a गुरु-शिष्य, however resolute, sincere, and painstaking he may be in his गुरु (actions - deeds), he is after all deficient (being imperfect), and hence, he plays a game (खेल में खेलें). For, although, he may be trusting in his mind that he is sure to Succeed, he has a little doubt ever haunting his heart as to whether the Great game that he is playing will essentially Succeed or Not. (खिला खेलें खेलें)
One may be really sincere in all his efforts (in गुरु-शिष्य) however, the little doubt whether he is on the right track (path) or otherwise never leaves him. It is there, as long as he is Imperfect. Even people follow him in Multitudes. But they too are as ignorant as he - perhaps the more - as they also grope in the dark, in the absence of any definite knowledge or experience

But there are all different ways (ways) to reach to realization. The way we reach the goal is different. It is not a way to it. Therefore, do not think that there are all the different methods of service (service) - one only (one). That is real service when there is no thought of self at all. The real self is reached only after that self has been removed. When the latter (service) and the thing cut up (service) are both one at a time. This is the service - service by appearance - service by philosophy or higher knowledge or service by love. The value or character of service is not in the service itself but in the person who is doing it. But again - how can we reach there without a way? Hence - get a way - a true way - not only one way - but of realization and for that.

(Content - but) Must all be selfless.

આ બીજા નરની આર્યા છે (શાંતી વીર્યામાં પહેલાં દર્શાવેલ) માન લક્ષ્મીને ધારી જેવાં તે ને કર્યાં કરાડી અને અંગણ ધણી ખામી નો ને અગુણ છે. A Comparison of 21101 E

- 1 The 21101 E that a Sadguru has = this (human) body
 - 2 " " " Yogi " = the shadow of " (1)
 - 3 " " " (an ordinary man) " = the shadow (in water) of the above shadow (2) of a Yogi
- (= Shadow of shadow)

Then there is No mind, No body, No. Universe.
No English man, No Native - Nothing absolutely.
but only one ^{one} ~~one~~ ^{one} ~~one~~ (Perfect state)

But these all (different) different ways (different) ^{are}
- Roads to Realization. For how can one reach the Goal without a way to it? Therefore, do ye all serve (serve) others - serve your people, serve your country -
These are all the different Methods of service (that you are doing here). That is real service where there is no thought of "Self" at all. The real "Self"
is reached only after such selfless services.
Then the Cutter (Cutter) and the thing cut up (thing cut up) are both one & the same. This is Real experience - proved by experience. Blank philosophy, or higher thought, or etiquette, etc. have No value or consideration there. (No value or consideration there.)
(No value or consideration there.)

But again - how can one reach there, without a way? Hence - get a way - (a true way) with only one aim - that of realization. And for that either Bhakti (prayer, devotion) or Karma (actions - deed) must all be self-less.

In all these states, the Atma is the Same, but the Samskars only are different (Asuri). And all these, ज्ञानं तद्विधि, अविज्ञानं तद्विधि, etc. are gone through to wipe off (burn) these Samskars.

All the ज्ञानं (actions) you do before realization is Imperfect, is only a means to reach perfection, to realize a perfection, to realize God, however much you may desire it. But the only advantage they give you is that they lead you (show you the way) to realization, are instrumental in your way ~~forwards~~ advancement towards the Goal of Truth. These actions only are Perfect, which are done after realization, as they alone are void of Samskars, which all other actions before realization are not.

All political leaders ask you to try & give your life even to gain स्वशासन (self government). I also ask you all to give your life even to re-gain the ~~Real~~ Real that is your own, and which you have lost through अज्ञान. The former (स्वशासन) is to be snatched out of the hands of others, and then acquired for ourselves - i.e. that is you have to make your own what is not yours. Therefore it is अज्ञान; while the latter (spiritual स्वशासन - i.e. Realization) never belonged to anyone else ^{except} your own self, which is therefore not to be ~~snatched~~ snatched out of the hands of others, as it was your own, is your own, but you were & are Unaware (unconscious) of that fact. Therefore, strive you - one & all - to Conquer & realize Self.

"All desires for any binding are not good.
 But the desire for Realization is so Sublime and binding (in the love of the પરમાત્મા) that it frees
 one from all other bindings (desires)."

Now your agnani - say - is in the bindings of the mind, the subtle body & the gross body. So its bindings are also Mental & physical. When agnani crosses these bindings and becomes one with the Source of all desires, there is no desire left for it - No Mind, No body, No Universe, but one state - નીરક્ષિત સ્વરૂપી.

As long as our desires are within the grasp or limit of Mind & body, they are manu - desires.
 and "Desires are નીરક્ષિત impressions"

When these formless impressions go away
 the agnani is given to Atma. and once agnani becomes void of these impressions, then it becomes the original pure Atma.

The desire for any binding is not good. But the desire for realization is so subtle ^{binding} that it frees one from all other bindings.

Now you say in the bindings of mind - the subtle body and the gross body, & so its bindings are also mental or physical. When asavahi crosses these bindings and becomes one with the source of all desires, there is no desire left for it - no mind - no body, no Urvan but one state -

Sanskrit are various impressions

When these former impressions, the asavahi is given to the Atma, once asavahi becomes void of these impressions, then it becomes the original pure atma

9th July - 1926

The last day of the year ending Shree's "Manu Vrat" - 7th Night Shree said, that according to his word, B.J. will give up the (worldly & spiritual) duties from tomorrow, i.e. the 10th July, and will give up the (gross) body within 200 days at the most from that date. Shree then said - that it is a general principle of the "Spiritual Outlook" ^{in general} that certain things be done in either 10 days, 20 days or if not, in 200 days at the most. Accordingly, when Shree B.J.
has left his connection with the world (except his body)
his duty has been Mahavratly transferred to some other agent (i.e. = B.)

The day of 10th July, therefore, bears a ^{double} spiritual importance, firstly, the above (i.e. Shree B.J. giving up his duties) and Secondly, the Anniversary day of Shree B. observing "Manu Vrat" since 10-7-1925. It was therefore decided, by a special resolution of the Circle Committee, that celebration of this important event on the 10th July, the day be observed as a Holiday, and all the departments in Inchehabad should stop work, and also (as a recompense for Shree B.'s sacred oath in the name of his Guru - to not returning to Inchehabad unless the thief is forced out) the whole Mawdali should observe fast that day (i.e. the 10th)
& should take food only once (at 3 p.m. with Sh. B.)
