This evening, Mr. — the worthy Suptdt. of the higher Technical School, paid a visit to Shree B. with the help of the School. While in general conversation, he asked Shree B. why it is that the whole world has always involved in tricks, treacheries, & of Copper-heads with each other, having no regard for Truth & honesty. Shree B. explained that, this is all due to the internal workings of Man's - who could stop all this immediately, but as they deem it necessary for certain internal reasons (known to them only) for giving a push to the world, they do not interfere, (rather - create these disturbances). This will all reach their highest stage in a short time, when a world-wide war will again shed bloods of innumerable lives, & bring the world to ruination, and when this deplorable outrage will reach its highest limit, B. will openly stand before the world, and preach his doctrines of Truth - etc. This all depends upon the leaving of the gross body of B.J. (which will be within Febry next), and No sooner B.J. gives up, B. will break his silent vow (व्रत) - His word will be a Sacred word, the Circle will manifest. Some will realize, some derive great Spiritual advantages, some Material... etc etc.

This is the final stage - this interval of 7-8 months upto Febry next, when they are giving the world the last push, etc etc.

Contd- 10th July 1926

As a preliminary step for the preparation of the gas tank B. had taken, he shall have to save up all food
etc. up till that time, and will only live upon liquid food - tea - coffee or milk for these 8 months

"Be as sane as a Sage, but Innocent like child" —

While staying & working in the world,
one must make use of his intellect, ability & strength towards the betterment of others & self. But while making use of all these (powers of the mind, ^{that} intellect, & body), one must be careful, they are no way mis-used.
And the best and the easiest way for it is to be as innocent as a child in all matters connected with woman ^{particularly} & the use of the sacred organ. For example — we all (Maudslayi) have the same organ as a child (Mebelli) has. Now suppose a naked fairy would be made to sleep on M. (child) — would it any way effect him (the organ) — her a bit. Why — because he is quite ignorant & at the same time innocent of all the affairs connected with this organ. But — if the same fairy would — you,

what would be the result. Shocking? Why?
because of the Crusad knowledge, and understanding of its usage.

Therefore be ye all, as alert & able, & same as you are now, but as innocent as a child! That innocence will only save you.

~~"Ignorance is bliss - here"~~

Then - Coming to the future plan of action, it was arranged, for the betterment of all, that these 30 members who had offered themselves to observe fast with Shree for these 7 months, should also remain with B. - on fast days - only on liquid food,
i.e. only on pulse, milk & tea. No solid food between 3- to 8 as previously arranged.

It was indeed the small bounty of Shree
B. to allow his persons in sharing with him in the observance of the fast, and all were ^{highly} thankful to Shree for same.

All lect. - will henceforth cease, & Shree B. will take no active part in any games etc. with the mandali (as usual).

Shree's plan of working daily will be - upto 10 in the morning - GDS under the tree.
10 to 4 - General supervision & inspection
rounds throughout M. Abad.
4 to 7 On GDS again

All his personal activities will greatly diminish - He will only have rounds of inspection taking little active part in the management of all affairs in M. Abad which will be left to the discretion & good sense of duty of the staff - who are all allotted special duties in different spheres.

Give another splendid illustration she said —
 Take the cloth to be the body (outer garment)
 " body " Mind
 " Mind " Soul.

Now suppose - a young maid well-clad may come & stand before you. As long as the clothes cover all parts of her body, it is alright. There is no effect to your mind. But suppose the small portion of clothes, covering the face just for a moment, it immediately attracts the attention of the Mind - (several undesirable ideas begin to revolve in the mind). Now - who did this? (i.e. saw the Cause of irritation to mind). That cloth - (i.e. body) Similarly as the cloth is to the body, the body is to the Mind. i.e. the Mind is effected by body, and the body is effected by the cloth.

अनुभव ही ज्ञानाचा आधार आहे. (i.e. stay near a body. अनुभव ही is the best means - all other means are either परफायन रीत्या - in some cases, a least in some.)

अज्ञान - अज्ञान - अज्ञान
~~अज्ञान - अज्ञान - अज्ञान~~

From Intellect to Truth, there are 7 planes, but yet these 7 pls. are in Mental Spheres only. (i.e. below Truth)

In each advancing plane, intellect gets developed into intuition, inspiration, power, light, revelation, overpowering of feelings & steadfastness. But it is all as said above in the mental planes.

He has not yet gone beyond Intellect.
In the inspired state or in the overpowered state the Mind is in intellectual advanced state, yet
in its own sphere - i.e. 2-212.

In the planes, the soul though varied & charming,
and the experiences Miraculous, it is all of the Mind, and where there are all possible chances of the Mind as well as 210312 being severely tested, and the State still imperfect (अव्यक्त)

It must be the ~~Heart~~ that must die, not the body. The body may die a thousand times, the soul is still there, alive.
It never dies. Even when body & mind both are dead, (realized)
the Soul ~~is~~ is there - still living, living for ever.

The body lives, works, & suffers for the (Hoi) Mind,
and the Mind lives for the Soul.

Example of a Coconut - The falling of the human body may be compared to falling off of a petty fibres on the outer hard crack-nut wall of a coconut. Hundreds of fibres may fall, but the water inside is intact. So, thousands of human bodies may fall & fear, the soul inside is intact.

You may have a splendid appetite, but if there are no teeth, you have simply to be satisfied with smell of the splendid dishes coming before you, in spite of your physical disability (for falling off of the teeth), you have the desire to eat. It is this desire that is to be killed, not the body or any part of it. If this desire is once killed, any amount of fine dishes have no effect upon you.

On arrival of the regular man - much earlier than usual to day - the topics turned - towards, death, destruction, fear - etc etc)

Why should we (sad) feel for the shocking wounds that were horrible to look at (by us) ? Do you feel killing an ant, a frog, a fly, a bug - not a bit. Do you feel when you a hen's neck being cruelly held & slaughtered by the butcher? No. Then - why fear & shiver at this human murder, wound, blood etc. The ant, the fly, the hen the goat, all have lives as men have. Then why feel for the one & not for the other? Just as you consider the size of these things quite insignificant as compared to that of human beings, when the question of life & death comes up. So do sadh. consider human deaths trivial - most insignificant - hence no feeling. To them the whole world is a small thing, just a point, then why at all worry for a man, living & dead. Besides, to them, (sadh) the dropping of the body (human) is no death, at all. It is dropping the one & taking the other. Lacs lacs of such bodies fall daily, & the same number take bodies again, simultaneously.

साधु ३३ अक्षर -

शुद्धि ३३ - शिव शिव शिव in the Gita
i.e. They (sadh) are really dead, & therefore really living (alive). So what is the dropping of the human body, this changing of the coat to them?

On R's enquiring re arav (Union - Circle etc) she explained

Every Master (Charyan) has to prepare his circle, whose members are those, who have a very long past connection with him, and who in a very pure way flock round him, in the age in the which he is to give them realization. They are very few (only 11) who get the real juice (Guru), and only One, out of Crores and Crores becomes an Acharya.

Quest - Then why strive for such a rare chance? It's like a lottery, (taking tickets etc - with the hope of getting some gain, but - without any result)

Answer - Because - here the result is SURE - though slow. You do get what you strive at. In sothe, it is the ultimate aim & object of one all to find TRUTH.

Quest - Then if it is sure to come to all, why strive for it. It will come of itself!

Answer - Your striving & struggle, brings you nearer & nearer to the goal, and ever tho' you fail a ninety nine time, if the last hundred effort would bring you to a goal 100 - your labour is amply paid for. For, from that moment, (if fed by a Guru) you have been pushed continuously to the goal, by the Secret workings & powers of the Guru. He it is said strive on & on Example - Look at those rays of the Sun (in the centre of the Sun - penetrating through some portion open) Compared to the Space of the Sun which is in dark, the portion is very small, while the rays themselves are few. Such is the condition of people in the Universe. A big mass is ignorant of any knowledge (real) - only a few there are who are enlightened - having received some light from a realized person. They are like these rays - very few, but even then - they are like rays - Not like the Sun - far far above out of reach. The real knowledge sun is to go and get one with Sun to throw light from there. To be like a little rays is nothing.

A Persian quotation -

The Police officer (Munir) who came leisurely after 3 hours highly appreciated the action of Mr. R. in removing the 2 wounded persons and giving them immediate treatment & relief, without which, both would have died of the severe wounds and shivering in the cold night, without any clothes on their body. Both the wounded were removed in the morning by the police, and then ended all the grave, anticipated troubles of last night. I should like to speak highly of his action of a service to humanity in spite of all opposition, and should cry all rest & resp. of police enquire on his own head.

The question of putting in a guard at the place by the police was discussed - it was proposed that an application be submitted by the villagers of Arangaon, other surrounding villages, & supported by one from an dikh, to the police Supt. to put in an Armed police guard at the place particularly, where there were previous murders too, and which indeed was a dangerous spot, as it gave fine facilities to desert murderers to look the papers by on the bridge, and run away thro' the kala - etc. An application was therefore prepared for signatures of the villagers on the coming Sunday morning - to-morrow day after, when there was a huge crowd expected.

20-7-26

At tea time -

Discussion on last Night's dastardly outrage -

It is happened, that at about 9 pm. yesterday, one of the Hindu Mr. _____ who was returning to Nager after Shree's dardhan, heard some cries near the Nala bridge about a mile off here, and being terrified, he came back & reported the matter to Shree & the others, whose several members immediately rushed to the scene. They there saw that 3 persons were lying ^{actually} soaked in blood - 1 was dead, & 2 were breathing their last. The wounds traced on the bodies of all evinced a most severe struggle between the Murderers & the murdered, with cruel weapons like axe, whose wounds indicated an act of cold blooded Murder. The wounds & marks were simply horrible to witness. Mr. Rust. rushed to the station to inform the police, and on returning to the scene, ordered the two unfortunate victims, severely wounded and breathing their last, to be taken to the Nager Ch. Hospital, in spite of an opposition by all Not to do so on legal grounds. He did this at his own risk & resp. disregarding all legal technicalities (points) considering the question only with the angle of vision of a duty towards humanity. He was not only severely remarked by all, but Shree himself (apparently) rebuked him severely for "kicking a burning house", and ^{urging} ~~urging~~ the police to sacred atmosphere, the regular intervention of police, to which he was deadly against, & which he avoided at all costs. As this intervention by police would upset & hinder the regular working system, the members of the ^{committee} ~~committee~~ ^{again} called upon to give explanations to police enquiries.

17-7-26

at tea time

The subject being opened, from to-day's special "Tury" in the Case of Mrs. Karkh & Bar., and the deduction drawn therefrom -

That - although Mr. Karkh. was wrong in rushing to the hospital and demanding his ^{interest} from Mr. Bar. - the man on duty there, the latter was not justified in his actions in refusing to give it Mr. Karkh. as Mr. Karkh. was ^{not} outside, a member of the ^{trust} - demanding his own property, and for the work of the B. - etc etc. Mr. Bar. may say, he observed his duties with a strict discipline, regard, but this is no small thing. It is very very difficult (to be so minute) particular in the observance of one's duties. If it be real it has no value, but this is an ^{old} ^{and} ^{show} - etc.)

"Jesus was a Mass (Fountain) of Light Knowledge & Power. However, he always appeared to be humble (i.e. possessed of Nothing), and it is this humility that raised him in the highest esteem."

Then - turning to Mr. Karkh, Shree remarked - That he was writing the life of a Lady, and from his writings, he would be judged by the word as a Very sane, Cool minded gentleman. (While, he himself was behaving here in a most rash, harsh and undesirable manner by getting so quickly excited) In order, therefore, that his words (writings) and action may coincide, I order him a punishment of ^{receiving} ~~receiving~~ ^{five} ~~five~~ Strokes, as a perpetual reminder to him of keeping cool-headed & quiet here after. (262-6221. in punishment)

When reverting to the strict adherence to the word of a guru - Shree narrated that

There was once a Sady. One of his disciples once asked him "Gurujee, what shall I do?"

"Say only 'Allah'" - said the guru.

And the disciple, sincere as he was, went on uttering "Allah - Allah" - the one word given by his guru for 11 eleven years. And at length, came to stand before Shree "Nizamuddin Raza" who immediately on seeing him approach, said -

"Come - be Allah - malik"

This utterance by Shree Muz gave the disciple a shock, and he immediately "realized" what he was. He got conscious of his own power, that very moment.

Now mark the queer point here, that Shree Muz had only reached upto the 6th pl. (i.e. not realized himself) - however, his utterance of the word "Allah - malik" gave a shock, to one much below him upto him, (but one whose love, regard, sincerely-faith in his guru - this word was unshakable).

Now, who was the cause of all this transformation, and queer workings? The first Sady, himself, who was at the bottom, and who only made an instrument of Shree Muz, in uttering the above words (rather he spoke himself thro' Muz's mouth) and gave his stammered disciple his well-deserved reward - i.e. realization.

Such is the value of a Guru's word - if it be

Such is the reward of a Guru's word, if it be truly adhered, and observed.

Another example of Rambh. & Virok -

It is a fact that Rambh. ordered his many disciples, to go and ask his questions to "Kali-mati" and get his replies from there, and ven. blindly observed his Guru's Commands, and did receive his replies, from Kali.

who was nothing but a stone-idol, and any ordinary educated man would laugh at the idea of getting a

and which was to small an education

reply to his questions from a piece of stone like Kali.

But what was it gave replies to Virok's questions. It was not the stone idol, nor the Devi herself. It was the unwavering faith of the stammering disciple (Virok) in his Guru's (Rambh.) words that got him the replies, and that actually compelled the Guru to give him replies through the ^{stone} idol of Kali. For ever God ^{is} within are compelled to give in to ^{their} real lovers (disciples with unwavering faith in them).

I say - therefore - (to the knits) to take this advice to-day - to conquer Anger (ॐ ३३ ३३ ३३) as a Guru's word - ३३ ३३.

(Does one's mind work faster or slower in ३३-३३-३३? slower, of course - as he is freed from all other environments thinking only of his little world (in Diberabad) etc)
