The subject being opened, from to-day's special "Survey" in the Case of Mrs Karkh - Barr., and the deduction's drawn therefrom -

That - although Mr Karkh. was wrong in rushing to the hospital and demanding his husband from Mr. Bar - the man on duty there, the latter was not justified in his actions in refusing to give it Mr Karkh. as Mr Karkh. was no outside, a member of the ^{side} - demanding his own property, and for the work of the B. - etc etc. Mr. Bar - may say, he observed his duties with a strict discipline, regard, but this is no small thing - It is very very difficult (to be so minutely particular in the observance of one's duties. If it be real it has no value, but this is an art and show - etc)

"Jesus was a Mass (fountain) of Light Knowledge & Power. However, he always appeared to be humble (i.e. possessed of Nothing), and it is this humility that raised him in the highest esteem."

Then - turning to Mr Karkh, I have remarked - that he was writing the life of a Lady, and from his writings, he would be judged by the word as a Very sane, Cool minded gentleman. While, he himself was behaving here in a most rash, harsh and undesirable manner by getting so quickly excited. In order, therefore, that his words (writings) and action may coincide, I order him a punishment of ^{receiving} two strokes, as a perpetual reminder to him of keeping cool headed & quiet hereafter - (243-61921. in punishment)

When reverting to the strict adherence to the word of a guru - Shree narrated - "that"

There was once a Sady. One of his disciples once asked him "Gurugi I what shall I do?"

"Say only 'Allah'" - said the guru.

And the disciple, sincere as he was, went on uttering "Allah - Allah" - the one word given by his guru for 11 eleven years. And at length, came to stand before Shree "Muzammud-din sateh", who immediately, on seeing him approach, said -

"Come - be Allah - malik"

This utterance by Shree Muz. gave the disciple a shock, and he immediately "realized" what he was.
He got conscious of his own power, that very moment

Now, mark the queer point here, that Shree Muz. had only reached upto the 6th pl. (i.e. not realized himself) - however, his utterance of the word
"Allah - malik" gave a shock, to one much below him upto him, (but one whose love, regard, sincerely-faith in his guru - this word was unshakable).

Now, who was the cause of all this transformation, and queer workings? The first Sady. himself, who was at the bottom, and who only made an instrument of Shree Muz.
in uttering the above words (rather - he spoke himself thro' Muz.'s mouth) and gave his stammered disciple his well-deserved reward - i.e. realization Such is the value of a Guru's word - if it be

Truth is the reward of a Guru's word, if it be truly adhered, and observed.

Another example of Rambh. + Virak -

It is a fact that Rambh. ordered his many disciples, to go and ask his questions to "Kali mata" and get his replies from there, and ven. blindly observed his Guru's commands, and did receive his replies, from Kali.

who was nothing but a stone-idol, and any ordinary educated man would laugh at the idea of getting a reply to his questions from a piece of stone like Kali.

and Virak was so small an educated man

But what was it gave replies to Virak's questions. It was not the stone idol, nor the Devi herself. It was the unwavering faith of the stammered disciple (Virak) in his Guru's (Rambh.) words that got him the replies, and that actually compelled the Guru to give him replies through the ^(stone) idol of Kali. For ever God Yeshu are compelled to give in to ^{their} real lovers (disciples with unwavering faith in them).

I say - therefore - (to me kindly) to take his advice to-day - to conquer Anger (as 2-211 2101 2101) as a Guru's word - 252 2102.

(Does one's mind work faster or slower in 2101-2101-2101? slower, of course - as he is freed from all other environments than only of his little world (in Dehlabad) etc.)

At tea time -

Discussion on last Night's dastardly outrage -

It so happened, that at about 9 pm. yesterday, one of the Hindu
 Mr. _____ who was returning to 'Nagar' after Shree's darshan, heard some cries near the Nala bridge about a mile off here, and being terrified, he came back & reported the matter to Shree & the others. whose several members immediately rushed to the scene. They there saw that 3 persons were lying actually soaked in blood
 - pools. One of them was dead, & 2 were breathing their last.
 The wounds traced on the bodies of all evinced a most severe struggle between the Murderers & the murdered, with cruel weapons like axe, whose wounds indicated act of cold blooded Murder. The wounds & marks were simply horrible to witness. Mr. Rust rushed to the station to inform the police, and on returning to the scene, ordered the two unfortunate victims, severely wounded and breathing their last, to be taken to the Indian Ch. Hospital, in spite of an opposition by all not to do so on legal grounds. He did this at his own risk & resp. disregarding all legal technicalities (points) concerning the question only with the impulse of vision of a duty towards humanity. He was not only severely remarked by all, but Shree himself (apparently) rebuked him severely for "killing a burning house", and ^{invidious} ~~invidious~~ in this point & sacred atmosphere, the regular intervention of police, to which he was deadly against, & which he avoided at all costs. As this intervention by police would upset hinder, his regular working system, the members of the ~~group~~ camp here & again called upon to give explanations to police enquiries.

The police officer (name) who came leisurely after 3 hours highly appreciated the action of Mr. in removing the 2 wounded persons and giving them immediate treatment & relief, without which, both would have died of the severe wounds and shivering in the cold night, without any clothes on their body. Both the wounded were removed in the morning by the police, and then ended all the grave, anticipated troubles of last night.
 I have to speak highly of Mr. this action of a service to humanity in spite of all opposition, and should ring all risk & resp. of police enquire on his own head.

The question of putting in a guard at the place, by the police was discussed. It was proposed that an application be submitted by the villagers of Arangaon, & other surrounding villages, & supported by one from an area, to the police Dept. to put in an armed police guard at the place particularly, where there were previous murders too, and which indeed was a dangerous spot, as it gave fine facilities to decoits & murderers to loot the papers lay on the bridge, and run away thro' the kala - etc.
 An application was therefore, prepared for signatures of the villagers in the coming 20/1/20 - to be made a day after, when there was a huge crowd expected.

(On arrival of the 4 regular men - much earlier than usual to day - the topics turned - towards, death, destruction, fear - etc etc)

Why should we (sad) feel for the shocking wounds that were horrible to look at (by us) ? Do you feel killing an ant, a frog, a fly, a bug - not a bit. Do you feel when you a hen's neck being cruelly held & slaughtered by the butcher? No. Then - why fear & shiver at this human murder, wound, blood etc. The ant, the fly, the hen the goat, all have lives as men have. Then why feel for the one & not for the other? Just as you consider the size of these things quite insignificant as compared to that of human beings, when the question of life & death comes on, so do sad, consider human deaths trivial - most insignificant - hence no feeling. To them the whole world is a small thing, just a point, then why at all worry for a man, living & dead. Besides, to them, (sad) the dropping of the body (human) is no death, at all. It is dropping the one & taking the other. Lacs lacs of such bodies fall daily, & the same number take bodies again, simultaneously.

सुनू ५२ ३३ - इरु मीन २०१० ०१ ०१११ ०११११
i.e. They (sad) are really dead, & therefore really living (alive). So what is this dropping of the human body, this changing of the coat to them?

211/1000 (211/1000) B. 211. "H na Enon 211/1000?" 211-211 (Suggesting that something secret was in that story)

It must be the ~~Heart~~ that must die, Not the body. The body may die a thousand times, the ~~soul~~ is still there, alive. It never dies. Even when body & mind both are dead, (realize) the Soul ~~soul~~ is there - still living, living for ever.

The body lives, works, & suffers for the (Hr) Mind, and the Mind lives for the Soul.

Example of a Coconut - The falling of the human body may be compared to falling off of a petty fibres on the outer hard crack-nut wall of a coconut. Hundreds of fibres may fall, but the water inside is intact. So, thousands of human bodies may fall & fear, the soul inside is intact.

You may have a splendid appetite, but if there are no teeth, you have simply to be satisfied with smell of the splendid dishes coming before you, i.e. in spite of your physical disability (for falling off of the teeth), you have the desire to eat. It is this desire that is to be killed, not the body or any part of it. If this desire is once killed, any amount of fine dishes have No effect upon you.

Givey another splendid illustration she said -
 Take the cloth to be the body (outer garment)
 " body " Mind
 " Mind " Soul.

Now Suppose - a Young maid well-clad may come & stand before you. As long as the clothes cover all parts of her body, it is alright. There is no effect to your mind. But suppose the small portion of clothes, covering the eyes just flies for a moment, it immediately attracts the attention of the Mind - (several undesirable ideas begin to revolve in the mind). Now - who did this? (i.e. saw the Cause of irritation to mind). That cloth - (i.e. body) Similarly as the cloth is to the body, the body is to the Mind. i.e. the Mind is effected by body, and the body is effected by the cloth.
