B. used to say this to some who felt the presence deeply, & wouldn't need talk & they would say

1 " Look at Her Eyes! They speak more than words — ! "

2 " What a face!
How kind! How Compassionate?
How Understanding?
How free

3 " Look — at that Expression on his face
It talks with you, without words! "

4 " O those eyes? — So radiant
So penetrating? — "

Your decision not to speak in July was a deep disappointment, and must have been deserved by our own unpreparedness... The world had to face the most dramatic verdict ever passed on human race - 'They will be done' - for us to wait when the time will be ripe to receive the Highest Good, to tune in into the Sounds of eternal Word, to clean the hearts for the blessing of love -

Dear B.

The weather is v. cold in Paris, and we will be glad to leave.....

In the most Miraculous way everything seems to be taken care of, even though it is very slow and small, and I go on knowing I must not fear.

When I get chaotic and realize all my responsibilities I suddenly feel ashamed for my lack of faith. R's courage about her affair is a great lesson to me.

It does me so much good to write to you, and I am so grateful to you. I am so blessed in just being able to think about you.

I pray, I may be able to ^{to do something} meet with your approval. My greatest happiness will be to serve you always.

R. & R. send their love with mine

Beloved B.

Your beautiful letter arrived today - just on the day
I am to write to you

I think of you always, my beloved B., and the way becomes smooth and the shadows disappear when I think of you. I know all will turn out for the best even though there are so many difficulties. My daughter sends her love, dearest B. . . . I long only to do what you wish

How wonderful will it be when we are all together, again.

All My love, dearest B. and all My devotion

This is wishing you a very happy Birthday, and sending my dearest devotion and love. It will be the first time that Christmas has felt real to me. You must have been wonderful then, — tho' even more so now!

I seem to have a long way to go before I am fit to join you, but circumstances are always helping me. I see your hand in everything that happens.

With great love

Dear Master -

I have read your Questions & Answers and am convinced by what I find all through those Answers of your truth, sincerity, and the real teaching you offer. I have sought and worked in groups, and feel as far off as ever from reaching and gaining that Divine Consciousness which once gained is never lost, while we are so limited. — in group work which seems to me the Method of working most helpfully for the whole, we cannot build enough power and love to really lift any of the present class and thus bring some harmony and Unity. You say in this book. page 19 "that Your help will be both individual & collective"

Will you help me to realize My Divine Consciousness that I may so better serve and love all. I know a Master can do this without coming in personal contact. Please help me.

A sincere seeker — J. T.

Dear B.

A wonderful thing happened two days ago. R. rented her apartment, through friends, to a very nice American man. She was so happy and came into my room saying "Baba, Baba, I am so happy and so grateful"

So often I feel lifted up that it is difficult to describe for it is inside of me. I feel always reaching out for something.

It gives me a great happiness to wear your ring, and I do try in every way to be worthy of it.

My heart cannot find expression for my Sincere appreciation

Beloved B.

.... You received a telegram from me the other day asking you to bless my party? You see - darling - in giving a party, I wanted to start the formation of a centre or nucleus that you could work through. Occasionally, I will give parties at which most of the guests who have met you or are interested in you gather together. And next time you come here, I hope you will consent to be the guest of honour at a party in my room.....

... I have moved out of that small room into a much larger one, on the top floor..... So now please think of me as installed in a large and beautiful room: but it lacked your blessing. So I had to telegraph to you.

B. darling, I want to come much much closer to you. Sometimes I wish I could go into retreat for 2 or 3 days at a time, to do nothing but think ^{about} of you. Would you like me to do that?
My deepest love to you, beloved Master and friend yours always E.C.

Baba dear -

Our Meeting was a very short one, only five or ten Minutes while you passed from Venice to Paris, through Milan. Do you remember My coming with Mr. & Mrs. W. to the train because I wanted to meet to know you?

How strange that I am obliged to remain in L. where ... I have been so happy to know A... & also the M.s. They are all such darlings, so sweet and kind We feel like one big family. Only you are missing in our midst, and yet I know you are with us - just the same. ...

I do so hope ... you may find a moment to write to me. I know how much you have to do and how full your life is.

Beloved Baba -

I am so happy in my work here, which I feel you are blessing all the time, guiding, and upholding and strengthening with your loving presence.

Often I get some thoughts from you whilst I am in the midst of this city, showing me the inner side of the work that is being done and the reason or some of the reasons.

We have just sent the Circulares for "The Sayings" and have had a few responses. We know they are channels for your Love and Power to all.

We always feel you with us & your compelling love, and pray that it may radiate through us to all and everyone. You have indeed blessed me above all I could ask or think.

Everywhere & in everyone do I seek for & try to see the perfect one you have revealed to my heart in yourself.

and there you are enthroned always.

Beloved Master -

I am always longing to have some news from you which will give me so much strength again.

My heart, my thoughts are always near you, and I don't fear, because I know, though things may look dark, that your Divine help will come and Always comes when it is needed. I know, beloved Master, that you know everything and that there is no distance that can separate those who love you.

There are days when I feel terribly sad, when it seems to me that my troubles will never end, but thanks to your Divine help, it does not last, and I feel Ashamed that I could not succeed to conquer those feelings completely. Because I must understand the real Meaning of life to be a help for those who suffer and work for you! which is everything and how grateful I must be to do it one day through Your help.

Oh beloved Master! I am so grateful to you for your great protection.

Beloved Baba -

We cannot tell you what joy your beautiful and loving letter brought. It seems so wonderful to realize your grace and goodness in looking to us. We do love and thank you.

O Baba - Yes, it fills me with awe and thankfulness, to know the closeness of Thy Consciousness it comforts me always, and it is a Real and constant Experience, but Thy loving and Sweet Assurance has made it doubly precious.

Most beloved Baba, I know that all the Divine love and grace are not only for me. I try to include all beings in Thy love, when so uplifted. You will understand, but Oh I long to be more worthy and prepared.

May I tell thee one other thing, tho' this letter is too long already. I was so happy to see the photograph of Her Holiness, beloved Baba Jan, that is coming out in your life. W. brought it to show me, because he knows how I love her. And I want to tell you, though I hope you will understand with what reverence and wonder I say it, that whenever I speak to her or think of her in love, I feel immediately the same wonderful, definite response that I feel from thee.

I can only love and thank thee for all,
and for the still deeper bond that has come....

I take the dust from thy Beloved Feet.

With all our love we are always Thinking and Speaking of you ...

Beloved B.

We received both your post-cards with great joy and felt your Divine Love with them. It is wonderful to have been allowed to enter upon the pathway illumined by that Love and Presence is here and every where more consciously because of your visit and the outpouring you gave us.

I cannot even now fully realize what You have given us, tho' I do get glimpses. I am just a child in your loving arms, filled with the joy and happiness, and the strength and divine beauty which enfold Me and all. I can comprehend and I know you are with me quickening the work you have given me to do.

We send you and all the loved ones with you our love, and again thank you beyond the power of words for having drawn us to yourself and enfolded us in your love

Ever yours
M.B.

Beloved Baba -

Thank you from our hearts for your loving thought in sending..... loving message which brought such comfort and strength. It was a wonderful surprise to receive them and we are very touched by your thought for us.

The beautiful and holy time we are allowed to have with you and the grace of all your unspeakable goodness remains with us and makes me feel more or more my unworthiness. I do long to be more competent to serve thee. I cannot feel adjusted to life, or able to cope with things, and long for the greater wisdom for guidance. We do bless thee for having drawn us closer in consciousness. It is a joy to hear from one and another of how much their visit to you meant to them..... All, all our love, and how we long for greater capacity in the light of thine infinite Unchangeable love.

Love to all with you, from your child

Please accept these as a lovely offering.

I was so happy to be with you and shall long for the time when I may see you again.

I have tried to "live above" suffering.

I seemed to see and recognize "a world" of suffering in your eyes today such as I feel.... the longing to suffer for others.... the awful consciousness of agonies borne everywhere - some too great to bear.....

B... have you not some special message for me? and will you convey it by the inner consciousness, or by Mr. D.?

You have I know already given me a message without words. I seem to feel you tell me to follow my old way of embracing everyone who crosses my path, helping them spontaneously with all that I have.....

Am I right in this? why am I still greedy to have more messages of love from you?
Please help me still. I feel ill, and afraid at times.

Lovingly your follower

I am sorry I could not stay until your train left but I suddenly felt as if I should burst, and I had to run away.

The room where we had all been together with you in London looked like a tomb. I peeped in but quickly ran away. It was too sad - for your light was missing..... and I am waiting for that moment when I may be allowed to be near you again.

..... I saw I. N. once again, and he was full of you, too happy.

Revered Master,

You asked me today what books I had written. Will you accept from me this one, which was the first I wrote as soon as I awoke from the four days' trance of which I told you?

You have given me such happiness today with your promise that the inspiration that failed me will return; it has been a grief to me as I felt it had been taken from me because I was unworthy.

Will you let me see you again? Won't you tell me some discipline I can do, because I want to purify myself so that some day you will think me good enough to take as a chala.

I want to be your chala and to be able to serve.

Please let me see you again before in love

You can guess how anxious we all were to hear from Margaret the details of your journey to Marseilles You can also guess what we felt like after we had seen your train puff out of the station; and I am afraid that the tears which we had somehow kept back whilst saying good-bye, commenced to flow freely as soon as Baba could no longer see our faces

..... I can remember nothing of our journey back to the hotel, or how we somehow found our way into Baba's room but we had not been sitting there so very long before we began to feel his presence so strongly with us, that we dried our tears, smiled and began to talk of him He seemed to be there, with us as indeed he really was - and I could see his face smiling and his eyes looking at us with deepest love..... We knew that he would not wish us to weep, so to please him, we sang his favourite songs, talked over the incidents of the week and made many happy plans for the future, when

We all went to bed very early as we knew Baba would wish us to rest: but D. & I were so excited to be sleeping in Baba's room, and in Baba's and just before 8:0 we left the Hotel Powers. Glad we seem to have now that Baba had gone..... Paris was

I think that our real deep thoughts never leave Baba. It is only our Surface thoughts that have to attend to work etc. that fly about a little, & then some of these try to see where Baba is in other
