Dear Adi -

I received the two telegrams from you saying how disappointed Gulmai was about not being taken to the West and I wired you back that it is impossible for Gulmai to come for the following reasons:- Firstly Gulmai's health being so weak & delicate it would be very dangerous for her to make the voyage in this rough monsoon weather. As you yourself know Gulmai gets sick if she travels for a few hours in a motor car even in good weather, so you can understand how very sick she would <sup>be</sup> travelling in a steamer for 13 days in stormy ~~days~~ seas - even if she managed to reach here alive she would have to stay in bed all the time & I would have an additional 3 months looking after her health, and she would not be able to enjoy her stay here at all. All the Indian ladies were half dead by the time they reached here and you have no idea what a troublesome time I had looking after them. Even Adige, who is usually a very good sailor, was sick all the time on the boat and was very weak & there when he reached here. That is why I did not bring Gulmai with me - as I saw that she was ill & very weak at Bangalore. And I didn't inform her that I was taking the other Indian lady because she would have felt hurt. I do not understand how you yourself can't see that her coming now is out of the question. Besides, Gurinmai, Deslatmai & Premi would create hell.

Moreover my stay here is uncertain. I do not know whether I will be here for one month or four months. If Mohammed is not coming, I will probably leave early for India, and what would be the use of Gulmai spending one month <sup>coming & going back</sup> in the steamer in a dangerous condition of health, & then stay here only for a few days? I quite understand that ~~that~~ this has been a terrible blow for her and it is natural that she is hurt very much & is disappointed. I feel very much for her too, but you won't believe it. Disappointed lovers have always to suffer; but, as you see, it really cannot be helped in this case. Explain all this to her but tell her that as dear to me as the ever was.

Regarding Mohammed, he should be here by the 10th October. If it can be arranged, you & Aga Baidul bring him - if it can't be arranged, drop the matter & write me accordingly.
 But I would like it very, very much that he should be <sup>brung</sup> here by the 10th October; and you must come with him, your presence here is necessary. So try your utmost and bring Mohammed and Baidul here by 10th Oct.

M. H. Khan

Should you happen to come here with Mahomed - please go to my place - at Dadar - and bring with you the Gujarati books of Mr. Sorabji. Kesai - yei one - 5 volumes, which brother Natty could give you.
 There is also another book 2nd gole by Sorabji which is also required by Baba. Co. please don't forget to bring these. Dehati Chauji

All the Indian ladies were half dead by the time they reached here and you have no idea what a troublesome time I had looking after them. Even Adi Jr., who is usually a very good sailor, was sick all the time on the boat and was very weak and thin when he reached here. Dear Adi,

We arrived here yesterday from Hyderabad via Nagpur, where we stayed en route for half a day.

In spite of all the best they all tried to give us comfort in Hyderabad, there were so many complications that made our stay there rather uncomfortable and even unsuitable for the work. I therefore decided to leave it abruptly which gave them all a shock literally.

Here, I find the atmosphere and surroundings quite congenial and suitable for the work which I want to do and intend to stay, both for work and rest.

I hope you are back in Meherabad and carrying out with full vigour the three works I entrusted you.

Tell Gulmae I am staying here from 20 to 30 days, and will definitely call her <sup>as you</sup> promised already/ Tell her also that she has missed nothing as the real tour will begin after leaving Jubbulpore.

I hope you will finish the work of the magazine and also of Khorshed-Rusi during the 20 days. I wrote Rustom a nice letter which he replied nicely mentioning about Nergis, Meheru and Mehelli, and I have wired him as under --- Nergis Mehra stay with you Mehelli come Jubbulpore immediately if absolutely willing -to spend holidays touring with me Otherwise stay with you Address care .....

M. I. am

Dear Adi –

Meheru's shoes and sandals fit o.k. Nagu's don't fit – so I am sending these back. The lower part (sole) is quite alright and to measure but the upper straps & fitting are tight. So get these exchanged – and send them on to Ramju for being given to Naggu

Dear Adi

I am happy about Gulmai feeling better. If Parmar is the artist Nili so highly speaks of, Gulmai should feel better & better. I hope you bring the Valley with you when you come to Lonavla. You will go on telling me you have no time to find the Valley & I will go on telling you, you must find one.

Does it matter if you don't believe that I love you most dearly & wish you not to be a fool as I wrote you last?

And what is this rubbish about My going to West? No one here knows anything about it and I myself have never thought of it. As a matter of fact I don't intend going to the West any more. All those who have told you have been fooled & have made you a fool.

Well anyway dont worry and give mother
my best love

Dear Adil,

Received your letter. Noted all your efforts about the valley.

You must find the boy before you come to Ahmadnagar. I want you to keep all your thoughts aside & work whole-heartedly to this end.

Khorshed has left for Bombay today. Aspi is not staying with Mota after all. I have told Khorshed to put Aspi in hostel. I am glad Gulmai comes out of the hospital on the 14th. Let her stay few days at Momai's & when you find her fit for the journey, bring her home.

Don't worry about see to it personally.

We will

Dear Adi,

Received your letter. How is Gulmai? When is the operation? Why don't you write the details? Did you arrange about the money?

I don't want you to neglect Gulmai for the orderly. But I would very much like <sup>you to send</sup> one from the Pathan boys you speak of, if you possibly could snatch some time out of your busy hours.

Did Raosab receive Norina's letter sent to Chanji?

Give my love to Gulmai & tell her honestly she is missing nothing pleasant here. Tell her not to worry but only think of getting well soon by the operation.

Rusis Jal came here by my order on 25th.

I have sent him back with a mission regarding his matrimonial affairs. You will come to know of it of course. But I will explain to you my policy when we meet.

Dear Adi,

Received your letter. I hope you don't read my letters in haste & miss any points, because in none of my letters have I asked you to find out from Devletmai where she would like to stay, (although by doing so you have served my purpose, because I was going to write to you to do so) but many other points about Devletmai were in my letters, which you don't reply.

If I decide for Freni to stay in Nasik for the present for a few days, then Devletmai must stay in Nasik too, to look after Freni. Rustom will be away, you & Nilu will be away, & Devletmai must stay in Nasik till I finally decide about Freni.

Tell Nilu I received his letter.

Dear Adi,

- 1) This bhayya boy sounds good, and if all the points are as good as you say, I won't mind the fingers & the feet. So you should arrange with him definitely. If you & Raka succeed in finding a better one, I will keep them both. If you don't find the ideal one, I will keep this one alone.
- 2) Weak & small won't suit the purpose.
- 3) Excellent. Try your best.
- 4) Let Me know what he says.
- 5) Hearing it is very boisterous; the enthusiasm of all here has cooled down.
- 6) Inform Raka the points in the letter & tell him I am happy he is trying with you for the boy.

When will Gulmai be fit to come to Ahmadnagar? Give her My love. Tell Nilu I received his letter, & not to worry.
