Mahabaleshwar. The large building in the background is the Rippon Hotel. In the foreground is the small house where Meher Baba in 1946 spent time in seclusion and also worked with a number of masts. Meher Baba stayed at the small town on the crest of the Western Ghats many times, including a 100-day seclusion in 1951 during the New Life period.

*“Have hope. I have come to help you in surrendering yourselves to the Cause of God and in accepting His grace of Love and Truth. I have come to help you in winning the one victory of all victories
- to win yourself.”*
