

God does not listen to the language of the tongue.

He does not listen to the language of the mind.

He responds to the language of the heart.

If anything ever touches My Universal Heart it is love.

True love is unconquerable and irresistible. It goes on gathering power and spreading itself until eventually it transforms everyone it touches. Humanity will attain to a new mode of being through the free and unhampered interplay of pure love from heart to heart.

The only thing that I have been repeating ever since the first time I came is Love God. Age after age I have been saying nothing but Love God.

I love you

Do not worry about your weaknesses.

Eventually they will go; even if they linger, love will one day consume them.

Everything disappears in the Ocean of Love.

Because I love you, you have a pool of love within you.

When you feel wretched, when you fall in your weakness, have a dip in that pool of love.

Refresh yourself in that pool of My love within you. It is always there.

Even if you wash your weaknesses every day in that pool, it will remain clear.

Don't worry. Baba loves you – that is what really matters.

Keep Me with you.

I am nearer to you than your own breath. Remember Me, and I am with you and My Love will guide you.

Your being with Me physically is immaterial. It is My being with you that matters. So keep Me with you always.

You have to love God silently and honestly even in your everyday life. Whilst eating, drinking, talking and doing all your duties, you can still love God continuously without letting anyone know.

Through unfathomable ways, I lead you to liberation. Accept My rhythm, come in tune with it without reservations. My rhythm of Truth will redeem you; it will open your heart, it will give you new love.

The dawn of love facilitates the death of selfishness.

Being is dying by loving. If you cannot love one another, how can you love even those who torture you? The limits of selfishness are created by ignorance. When a person realizes that he can have more glorious satisfaction by widening the sphere of his interests and activities, he is heading toward the life of service. At this stage he entertains many good desires. He wants to make others happy by relieving distress and helping them. And though even in such good desires there is often an indirect and latent reference to the self, narrow selfishness has no grip over good deeds. Even good desires may, in a sense, be said to be a form of enlightened and extended selfishness; for, like bad desires, they too move within the domain of duality. But as the person entertains good desires his selfishness embraces a larger conception that eventually brings about its own extinction. Instead of merely trying to be illustrious, arresting, and possessive, he learns to be useful to others.

Sojourn of the Soul...

The Sojourn of the Soul is a thrilling Divine Romance in which the lover – who in the beginning is conscious of nothing but emptiness, frustration, superficiality, and the gnawing chains of bondage – gradually attains an increasingly fuller and freer expression of love. And ultimately the lover disappears and merges in the Divine Beloved to realize the unity of the lover and the Beloved in the supreme and eternal fact of God as Infinite Love.

*Silently cry out within your own self,
“Beloved One, reveal Yourself to me as my own Real Self.”*

You have had enough of words, I have had enough of words. It is not through words that I give what I have to give. In the silence of your perfect surrender, My love, which is always silent, can flow to you – to be yours always to keep and to share with those who seek Me. When the Word of My Love breaks out of its silence and speaks in your hearts, telling you who I really am, then you will know that that is the Real Word you have been always longing to hear.

Life is a mighty joke

He who knows this can hardly be understood by others. He who does not know it finds himself in a state of delusion. He may ponder over this problem day and night but will find himself incapable of knowing it. Why? Because people take life seriously, and God lightly; whereas we must take God seriously and life lightly. Then we know that we always were the same and will ever remain the same...the Originator of this Joke. This Knowledge is not achieved by reasoning, but it is the Knowledge of Experience.

The ideal prayer to the Lord is nothing more than spontaneous praise of His being. You praise Him, not in the spirit of bargain, but in the spirit of self-forgetfulness.

When mind soars in pursuit of the things conceived in space, it pursues emptiness; but when man dives deep within himself he experiences the fullness of existence.

To love me for what I may give you is not loving me at all.

To sacrifice anything in my cause to gain something for yourself is like a blind man sacrificing his eyes for sight. I am the Divine Beloved, worthy of being loved because I am Love. He who loves me because of this will be blessed with unlimited sight and will see me as I am.
