

THE SWORD
of
ONE

The image features a central graphic of a sword. The hilt is at the top, with a heart-shaped pommel. The blade is a vertical rectangle with diagonal hatching, tapering to a point at the bottom. The text 'THE SWORD of ONE' is printed in a black, stylized font, centered over the sword. The entire composition is enclosed in a black border with decorative corner pieces and a dotted inner line.

In Appreciation of Murshida Duce

who taught by the sword of discrimination.

we offer this story.

Jenny & Peter

There are many kinds of swords..,

And many kinds of
heroes to wear them!

King Arthur wore a sword called Excalibur.

The sword of Muhammad
might have looked like this.

The Buddha
sometimes uses a sword
to cut through the Darkness
of the world.

John, the disciple of Jesus, once saw a vision
of Christ in Heaven,
with a sword coming out of His Mouth.

In India they say that when the world gets so bad that almost
nothing in it is good,
God will come again
riding on a White Horse
and holding in His hand a blazing
Sword of Light!

Will Baba's Word be like the Sword of Light, destroying Evil in the world?

Nowadays, people
don't use swords much.
But there is one kind of sword that you can always wear-

The Sword of One.

Its Light can clear away any darkness for the Sufi.

So, the next time
you are afraid,
or confused,
or worried,

Think of your heart
and wings and Sword of One!
