Foreword

Dear Reader:

Our friend Anthony Brooke, the noted traveler known world-wide for his genuine interest in metaphysics, the ideals of a spiritual way of life and the New Age, wrote a letter to me recently.

"I am coming across more people (including my sister)" Anthony explained, " who are having VISIONS and DREAMS of the ENDTIMES, and that these are imminent !

"Many of these visions involve the Book of Revelation," he went on, "The other day I met a woman who dreamt about a year ago, most vividly, of watching the world going up in the most beautiful flames -- a simply glorious sight, she said! The one thing that impressed her most was that she was not in the least bit disturbed, while nevertheless realizing that she was part of the happening.

"If you, Michael, have a collection of authenticated 'modern visions' relating to these transition times, do let me have some examples. Or better still, write a book about them, with your interpretations !"

You will find many such VISIONS, PROPHECIES and DREAMS herein, compiled from numerous sources. The material is for the most part, taken from personal letters sent to us by sincere and inspired individuals from every walk of life. Since most of the contributors wish to remain anonymous, only their initials have been used. The visions are recent enough to qualify as "modern" and I assure you no "dream" or "vision" printed in this book is other than entirely genuine, and is reported as given.

These private revelations and soul-experiences continue to pour in, even as NATURAL disturbances in our world increase. It is almost as if the Universal Mind is trying with all its might to tell us that in very truth the ENDTIME of the Age is upon us. May we recognize this and prepare ourselves for the great events ahead.

THE HISTORY OF THE

First part of the history of the world, from the beginning of time to the present day, as recorded in the Bible and other ancient and modern writers.

Second part of the history of the world, from the beginning of time to the present day, as recorded in the Bible and other ancient and modern writers.

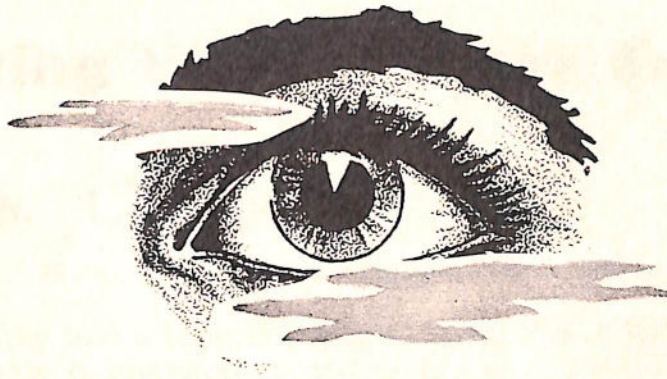

Third part of the history of the world, from the beginning of time to the present day, as recorded in the Bible and other ancient and modern writers.

Fourth part of the history of the world, from the beginning of time to the present day, as recorded in the Bible and other ancient and modern writers.

Fifth part of the history of the world, from the beginning of time to the present day, as recorded in the Bible and other ancient and modern writers.

Sixth part of the history of the world, from the beginning of time to the present day, as recorded in the Bible and other ancient and modern writers.

Seventh part of the history of the world, from the beginning of time to the present day, as recorded in the Bible and other ancient and modern writers.

"AMAZING VISIONS OF THE ENDTIME" pulls no punches in recounting to you the powerfully VIVID DREAMS and the SHOCKING SCENES of events we all instinctively sense are NOW shaping into form on the horizons of this world. Many souls are now seeing VISIONS OF WHAT IS TO COME SOON! These are important things for you to know about.

Students of Prophecy realize -- even if the masses of mankind do not -- that "coming events cast their shadows before"; and unless such warnings are at once HEEDED, so that definite changes and constructive alterations in the pattern are made... it is as sure as night follows day that Earthman will "reap exactly what he has sowed".

"AMAZING VISIONS OF THE ENDTIME" pertains to the END of this Age which is rapidly approaching. We are in the "endtime" now. The angelic visitor admonished Daniel that : "...when many shall travel and knowledge shall be increased ... THEN the WISE SHALL UNDERSTAND." (that it is the END of an Age) Please do not expect this unusual book to "END the WORLD" for you. It won't for that isn't what "endtime" means. TIME, however, is running out for this Age in which you and I live, and VISIONS reveal that many climactic EVENTS and UPHEAVALS are directly ahead.

You, who read the "Visions" will KNOW. But as for others, no amount of proof is sufficient for them! They do not want to know it. And the great revealing will come to them as an OVERWHELMING SURPRISE!

Amazing Visions of the Endtime

Cleansed by Fire

—"Life of Anna Kingsford," Vol. I, page 357

"Last night Mary had a long and highly dramatic DREAM, evidently symbolical and prophetic in character, which she is too weak to write out, so that only this meagre sketch can be given of it. In it she found herself, with A., her eldest brother, and me, forced to take refuge by the seaside during a period of most TERRIBLE HEAT and DROUGHT.

"A COMET had enveloped the Earth; the inhabitants of which were dying off by wholesale -- while all produce, vegetable and animal, had perished utterly.

"The heat, which had begun in October, was most excessive from January to March. Streets and highways were strewn with corpses which, instead of putrefying, were dried up, no one being left to bury them. All traffic had ceased, for there was no one to buy, or sell, or carry. We alone survived. All through the winter the HEAT exceeded anything known in Africa.

"Seeking for food, we went into the shops and stores and helped ourselves at will, for there were no other owners. Even the sea afforded no escape from the heat, for it was hot to simmering; and there rose from it dense clouds of steam, which loaded and darkened the atmosphere.

"In the spring an Angel came to us and said that only three thousand persons remained alive on the earth, and that the new population which was to spring from them would represent a higher condition of being than the world had ever yet known. For the baptism of fire through which the earth was then passing would usher in a pure and perfect doctrine and rule of life. It was not to be as it had been after the great purification by water known as the Deluge. For in those times the people who had been saved in the ark no sooner came out than they fell back to their old low level in faith and conduct, becoming again materialists and idolaters...and instead of making spiritual sacrifice to God in themselves, shed the blood of the poor animals who had been saved with them.

"And therefore it was that God had said He would no more again punish the earth in that manner, as mankind were so hopelessly perverse that it was of no use to do so. But NOW there was to be a revelation so full and plain that it could not possibly be misunderstood and perverted, however stupid people might be. And to this end we were to put the Bible into the fire* at the first opportunity. Having left us this enigma to ponder, the Angel took his departure, and the dream came to an end."

COMMENT: The meaning of this dream is easy to see providing we use our spiritual eye rather than the physical. This world and its people shall be -- and to a large degree already is -- purified of its false standards, its deceit and its selfishness. Evil in all forms, "burns up" in the Last Days of every great Era of Time. Even the Bible* is subjected to a clearer and a truer interpretation, so that the genuine teachings of Jesus, the 'essential Christ' message, is born anew. Putting the Bible into the fire does not mean a literal burning of the book. It means burning away the false dogmas that have caused the original Christianity to be replaced by "Churchianity" today!

FOUR STRANGE DREAMS

DEAR MICHAEL: This is addressed to you because I noted your invitation to share certain "dream or vision experiences" with you relating to the ENDTIMES. I have had several such dreams which might be of interest to you. In each one I have been with a few others (the remnant?), and we are always gathered together in a "high place". Here are four dreams:

1. In this dream, it seemed we were on top of the world, for we could see the horizon in every direction. I saw the moon, full and greatly enlarged. It was BLACK, and on it was a sort of caricature, just the expression lines, OF A VERY SAD FACE. The face was done in the usual yellow color of the moon. As I watched, it began to descend -- slowly at first -- then it gathered momentum and finally sank below the horizon. It seemed to indicate to me that OUR PLANET WAS TO UNDERGO MUCH SADNESS AND TURMOIL.

COMMENT: You are absolutely right in feeling that this planet (and men and women everywhere on earth) WILL undergo turmoil, tragedy and pain. I get the immediate impression that this dream concerns the NEGRO PEOPLE of this country. No question about it, negroes are sad, disillusioned, and embittered. Unless the Mormon prophet Joseph Smith is badly mistaken in his amazing WHITE HORSE VISION (included in this book), scenes of bloody revolution far worse than the "riots" up till now, may take place right here in the land of America. I hope to God they don't. But the White Horse Vision states quite plainly that the "Black Horse" or Colored people will flee to a certain country outside of the U.S.A., for SAFETY, out of fear of becoming slaves again. It could get pretty rough. -- M.

2. In a second dream, SPACECRAFT appeared, and from them there issued forth a misty, whitish substance. This was "sprayed" all over the earth, and I received the impression that it was to PURIFY the planet and also to enable us to BREATHE BETTER.
3. In another dream-vision, a beautiful, rainbow-colored mother-ship from another world appeared to us THREE TIMES. On each occasion, it dropped a basket of food for us. I can only remember the third basket with real clarity, though. It was filled with the largest, most beautiful GOLDEN-GREEN APPLES imaginable! Evidently, we will be taken care of very well.
4. At another time we seemed to be at one of the polar regions. As far as we could see there was white snow and ice. Suddenly, great cracks appeared in the ice, and blue water gushed up between them, rapidly separating the ice. This, I presume, could indicate a polar shift. -- L.W., Oregon.

85 YEAR OLD WOMAN DREAMS WORLD IS ON FIRE -- STARTS IN EAST, SPREADS TO WEST!

DEAR MICHAEL: I dreamed that this world was on FIRE in the east. It looked so terrible I groaned in my sleep. My daughter, Mrs. Bonine Smith was awakened by my groaning and came to my bedroom to wake me up. She said, "Mother, what is wrong with you?"

I replied that I had a terrible dream...that I saw the world ON FIRE -- that it all so REAL that surely there is great significance to this dream. I saw it starting in the East reaching unto the West. Use my vision or dream anyplace you desire. -- Mrs. D.G., Lebanon, Mo. (April, 1965)

COMMENT: I am reasonably certain your very startling dream, one that caused you sufficient anguish to force you to moan in your sleep, did "foreshadow" the Near-East "hot war" between the Jewish nation and the Arab nations in 1967. When you saw the "world on fire in the East" it was symbolic of that situation which was to happen as a literal fact two years after your dream. All "hell" broke loose in that part of the world and for awhile it was touch and go as to whether or not the United States would be plunged into a hot war with Russia, because of the situation. In other words, the symbolic fire was about to spread to the West.

The Jewish victory appears to be a mighty one. They have made gains geographically, gotten their right of way through the Gulf of Aqaba, even taken back Jerusalem. But, in the light of Prophecy, a true and lasting peace has not been achieved. There is a "hidden culprit" to be reckoned with, and that is Russia, the Bear. The Bear has a willing puppet, Egypt. Russia has loaned hundreds of MILLIONS OF DOLLARS to Egypt and the Arab nations, and now they cannot refuse to do what Russia demands. In my opinion, the Bear will use Egypt to try to take Palestine in the near future. Then the conflict could spread to the West with great swiftness. I don't say it will, I say it could. Therein lies the serious danger. -- M.

THE TALL, SAD MAN IN THE BLACK
SUIT, WITH THE "STOVE-PIPE" HAT

A Vision by
V. B.

On the evening of September 30, 1962, I had the following ENDTIME VISION come to me with great vividness. I had been reading a book called "Avatar" by Jeanne Adriel, and Michael and I were sitting in the living room of our home in a meditative mood. I closed the book and said to him, "I think something is trying to come through. Let's both be very quiet." Then I closed my eyes.

First I saw a mental picture of policeman's badge. Then of a large tulip, the kind Holland is famous for.

Then in this inner vision, ABRAHAM LINCOLN appeared, standing before me (in a somewhat reduced size) wearing his tall black hat and black suit. As I looked at him quietly, he bowed to us!

He said, "Does Michael wish to question me?"

Michael asked, "Will there be war?"

"Yes," said Mr. Lincoln, "in this United States. You two will do your part to help in this crisis. In Mississippi it begins. In the year 1964 it begins as a war and in 1965 the crisis." Mr. Lincoln seemed to moan, "Was my work in vain?--"

Then he said, "My poor South -- in anguish. Los Angeles will not escape. ... (a long pause) ... but the Union will emerge, with flying colors! Care not for houses, nor material goods; but for the Union, the Truth, and thine own Eternal Flame!"

We asked if we would have his help. He bowed again. "I will be with you as you keep well in the light of honorable action. You will have the help of those in the Light also -- MANY! You will emerge with flying colors!"

He was gone. We returned to full environmental consciousness feeling that the experience was of terrific importance. Now it is almost 1968, and as I look back I can see that events have truly happened in line with the vision. I believe that the "policeman's badge" indicated CIVIL STRIFE as in RIOTS and MOB CHAOS. And who does not know that the city of Watts here in Los Angeles was the scene of the first major NEGRO RIOT? -- V.B.,
Los Angeles, Calif.

VISION OF SUN FALLING BACKWARDS

DEAR MICHAEL: I see you are interested in dreams. May I relate a vision or dream of mine going back about four years ago? In this vision I saw the sun. It had a beautiful, fiery glow, when suddenly, it started spinning furiously. Then, just as suddenly, it stopped spinning and fell over BACKWARDS. That is, it toppled over backwards and turned black.

Next, from the right side of the sun came the moon, silver and very beautiful. The moon then proceeded to TURN RED. And then, from beyond the direction of the moon WHITE CLOUDS came drifting by swiftly and as I watched they changed to BLACK, and passed over the face of the sun.

Then amazingly, from the left side and behind the sun came a HUGE, ORANGE GLOBE. It was moving swiftly and seemed to be on a definite collision course that would cause it to crash into the Earth. "Dear God," I cried, "the Earth will be terribly DESTROYED!"

But instead, this immense orange globe STOPPED -- almost in mid-air!

The dream ended then, but I know that many worlds WILL see this great orange "something" in the sky. I awoke and went to my Bible and read of the sun and the moon.

About one year after my dream I read in the Bridgeport Post newspaper that the SUN had completely SHIFTED ON ITS POLES. I'm sure that is what my dream meant when I saw the sun "flop over backwards".

I also read in Dr. Andre Puharich's book relating to his work with the psychic Peter Hurkos, that Peter also saw something ORANGE in the sky that the world will one day see. -- Mrs. C.Q., Stratford, Connecticut.

COMMENT: Yes, the sun in our solar system DID reverse its magnetic polarity completely between mid-1957 and late 1958, according to scientists of Caltech university. This means that life as we've known it, is passing away. That is, illusions are being shattered because the previous world standards which were based on the negative polarity of the sun now are having to make a complete "about face" and re-establish themselves (if they can.. in many cases they simply cannot) on a totally different polarity, the positive instead of the negative. All this is, I admit, quite intangible and subtle. You can't SEE these new frequency vibrations of the sun, but they are affecting every living creature nonetheless. The sun, you see, has in a manner of speaking, "revolted" and reversed its prior position. This influence has extended to man on planet Earth who now becomes the "rebel in revolt". The "Negro revolt" and the Hippie revolt" are two examples.

The "great orange globe" could be the huge asteroid Icarus. I'm glad to know that you saw it STOPPED in your vision, because as scientists know, we can expect a roundtrip or another visit from Icarus in nineteen years... assuming that its 1968 visit is a safe one (see my book: "Icarus '68")! - M.

VISION OF THE BLACK SPHERE

DEAR MICHAEL: Today, July 9th, 1965, while resting with my eyes closed, I had a vision of a BLACK SPHERE, surrounded by black clouds. The bottom of the sphere was open and in light. Two hands were extended and beckoning to come. (enclosed is a crude illustration)

-- S. L., Elmer, N.J.

COMMENT: Spirit tells me that this black sphere in your vision symbolizes a TIME OF TROUBLE in which the entire human family will be involved as it will envelop or touch all. "A Time of Trouble such as never was since there was a nation..." (Daniel) The hands beckoning in light mean that God's people have a way of deliverance... We shall come through night into light and be lifted up. - M.

INSIDE A FLYING SAUCER

DEAR MICHAEL: I know you may think I'm foolish, but at night asleep or awake I often get the urge to go outside and LOOK UP at the sky. When I do, a shooting star frequently goes by. And, when I ask -- mentally -- if anyone is up there in my vicinity, and to please say "hello" again, another "shooting star" (?) goes by.

One night, about four years ago, I seemed to be in my bed asleep, but yet I was walking down a road, when suddenly a STRANGE SILVER CRAFT was hovering above me. Instantly a beam of light flashed down and scooped me up, and I was INSIDE this strange ship!

Three or four men were there also, going through a door into another room. I started to go into the room also when a man's voice said, "No, Charlotte. You stay here and do not be afraid." But I was afraid and I was looking for something to hide under, when the thought came to me: Why should I hide when I know I'm asleep (my physical body that is) down there in my bed and my spirit-self can't be hurt?

So I stopped worrying and began to look around the room, which was small and bare of furniture. On the floor, however, were large crystal balls that were emitting a soft light. These crystal balls were the means of lighting, for I saw no light fixtures in the ship. I noticed that one ball was dark, and said, "This one isn't lit. How come?" When, as I watched, a misty, smoky-like vapor seemed to be flowing into this one crystal ball by some means beyond my knowledge. The lighting was very soft and lovely.

All at once, I found myself sitting up in bed, awake and commenting on the "lovely glow" this particular crystal ball threw off. But I don't remember anything else that may have happened. I believe this to be a true experience.

-- Mrs. C.Q., Stratford, Conn.

COMMENT: Yes, on a super-physical level your dream-experience was undoubtedly quite real. The origin of many UFO's may indeed be in etheric rather than gross-matter worlds such as our Earth. There is some reason to suspect this is so, and therefore it seems to me that your experience was on a higher level -- or higher frequency -- than the mundane physical.

Of course you don't remember more of the experience, for it most likely wasn't intended that you should. I do, however, see meaning in the "one dark ball" in your dream. That, I am sure, symbolizes this planet Earth... soon to be filled with a soft, beautiful new light of a higher vibrational frequency. So you see your dream, though an etheric reality, was symbolic as well. -- M.

"If we are asleep in the body we cannot act on matter, and if we are asleep in spirit we cannot act on spiritual things."

THE STRANGE, UNBELIEVABLE SILENCE

DEAR MICHAEL: Several years ago, on two different dates, I awoke during the night as if in expectation of something. After a short time a GREAT SILENCE fell. It was as if a great command had been given to all nature to STOP.

Both times the silence lasted for several seconds. Then, just as suddenly, all nature went back into MOTION. The first time no one else had felt this silence. The second time, a couple of strangers in a store were talking about the awful stillness WHICH THEY ALSO HAD FELT, as I had.

-- Mrs. R. F., Bellmore, L. I., N. Y.

COMMENT: This Time Era is going to END, but a New Era will start. - M.

SEES NEW YORK CITY CRUMBLING INTO DUST!

DEAR MICHAEL: Here is an ENDTIME VISION I've had more than once in the last two years. I have never been to New York, but in this vision I am transported to that great city. I'm shown the Statue of Liberty so I'll know where I am. I am shown the many bridges across water, railroad bridges too.

It's a lovely warm, sunny morning in early spring. People are going to work and others are dressed in spring clothes. All is color and brightness. As I walk I come to a hospital where doctors and nurses are hurriedly emptying the hospital. All the patients are being evacuated from the building. I want to rush in to help but a VOICE TELLS ME NOT TO. Then I see that hospital fall into COMPLETE DUST... NOTHING BUT DUST. Even the bodies of the living and dead are converted in the twinkling of an eye into DUST!

I hear someone shouting, "There goes the Broadcasting Station!", and in the distance another building falls silently into DUST.

Then a large insurance building goes, and so on until every building in sight has crumbled away into dust, and then I am alone -- utterly alone -- in what was once a crowded metropolis. New York, once so much the noisy, thriving place of commerce and the "crossroads of a million private lives" is now SILENT. No buildings left standing, no animals, no birds... DUST.

The sun shines on dust approximately one foot deep. Rivers are dry. All the while there is this deep, deep SILENCE. No sound of creaking timbers, or steel upon steel, only the silent crumbling produced by the hot, bright rays of the sun; which, although I felt the heat harmed me not.

-- A. T., Kitchener, Ontario, Canada.

THE JUDGEMENT DAY EARTHQUAKE

DEAR MICHAEL: I dreamed of Judgement Day. I saw this world system * end, by a SUDDEN, GIGANTIC EARTHQUAKE. It was horrible. I saw and heard men curse and shake their fists at God, blaming God. Women and children screamed and cried.

I was doing breakfast dishes that morning and, looking out of the kitchen window, I saw it strike. I went to the front door, opened it and stepped outside to watch the destruction from the porch. It seemed but only a few minutes and EVERYTHING WAS GONE. Not a house stood, not a building, not a tree, not a mountain. The entire Earth was flat as a desert...swept of everything, AS IF A CYCLONE HAD HIT.

Then it was suddenly quiet, very still, as a lull or the stillness before a storm. Perhaps a half hour this quiet lasted, then suddenly, in the heavens, OUT WALKED CHRIST.

He was beautiful, simply beautiful. A long flowing robe, barefoot, long dark brows, wavy hair, dark brown eyes like a doves eyes. A light was on his face. His eyes showed kindness, gentleness, and he smiled as he moved.

He walked down toward me and stood as if weightless in the air about two feet in front of me. He did not speak, just gazed at me. I could only stare at him, so struck was I by his unearthly beauty.

Then I awoke, terrified by the horror I had witnessed in this dream, yet filled with wonder and joy by his great beauty and majestic power. For one month after, I CRIED CONTINUOUSLY, day and night. I couldn't tell anyone WHY I cried all the time. I didn't know; just felt like I wanted to cry.

Also, during that month, I could not feel the ground or the floor under my feet...as if I walked on air all the time. I tried to feel the ground or floor beneath my feet but simply could not. After one month my crying ceased, and once more I could feel the ground or floor under my feet.

In the dream, although I stood at the door, I was also in the sky looking down. For I saw the whole universe from above, yet stood in the doorway.
When the silence followed the quake, I pointed into the sky and said to the whole world, "LOOK," and as I spoke and pointed, the women and children ceased to scream and cry, and men ceased to curse God and shake their fists.
All eyes turned to where my finger pointed and all was quiet, until he walked out. Many died all over the world, but a few in every race escaped death.

I saw no fire, but after the EARTHQUAKE, the entire planet was burned brown. Not a tree, flower, shrub or even a blade of grass remained. The entire earth was scorched brown as a desert. -- Mrs. L. E.,

Santa Monica, Calif.

COMMENT: I think the interesting points to recognize in the above dream are first of all, the unusual effects it had upon the young lady herself immediately following the dream. What did she do? She cried for a full month. Also, she practically levitated as she states her feet did not contact terra firma solidly for the same length of time. The crying indicates a profound emotional disturbance at what was seen and experienced in the dream, because nobody cries for a whole month for no reason.

This is a "Judgement day" dream, and such scenes can only be "horrible" and shattering, however brave and bold the viewer may try to be. In this stage, however, even though the earth is shaken terribly, it is not destroyed. The world-system* though, ends, and higher, cosmic power takes over. - M.

THE VOICE I CAN NEVER FORGET

DEAR MICHAEL: One Sunday afternoon about seven years ago, I was lying on the cot in the kitchen and was in the borderline state between sleeping and waking, when it happened. The MOST BEAUTIFUL VOICE SPOKE, a voice I can never forget.

I did not write down all I heard, but it started like this:

"TO ALL WHO HEAR MY VOICE I HAVE THIS MESSAGE. BE NOT AFRAID - NO MATTER WHAT COMES."

After that the exact words are forgotten, but it was to the effect that when HOLOCAUSTS come to not be afraid, for we will be protected. If in an area of danger celestial "ships" or "saucers" would pick us up, those of us who are New Age workers and place us in a safe place until the holocaust is over, then return us to our place of work assisting others.

I've not heard that voice since, and have never seen a "saucer" though I have longed to. The proper time is, no doubt, not yet here.

-- Mrs. H.M., St. Petersburg, Florida

COMMENT: From the looks of things in the world today the time spoken of by your "visitor" isn't too far off. The time of the Great Tribulation has not yet come, as we are now in the time of Jacob's Trouble, which precedes the far worse trouble to come. It is now late August 1967, and the so-called NATURAL disturbances are increasing in an alarming way. Here in California we've sizzled in the HOTTEST nights we've ever recorded, while at the same time Alaska fights the perils of FLOOD WATERS "the worst in anyone's memory there". The headline on this morning's paper says "NORTHWEST HOLOCAUST" -- 400 new fires rage in forests! Another headline reads: Alaska periled by Thaw. Another: Racial Violence Erupts in 3 Areas. As if this weren't bad enough, we have the report of an internationally renowned engineer in New York, who warns:

"The stage is being set for the MOST CATASTROPHIC DISASTER... California is due for a GIGANTIC EARTHQUAKE which will follow the San Andreas fault. When the big shake comes it will make the Alaska Quake of some two years ago look like nothing..."

Can you imagine it? First, the QUAKE... MAMMOTH in proportion to all other quakes of history. Then, STAMPEDE. PANIC. A whole state trying desperately to escape the area, only to be trapped in one of the most appalling traffic jams in history... a mass of starving, howling, fighting maniacs... all getting in each other's way. Without a mass "air-lift" my friends, like the beautiful voice spoke of, you might as well forget it. - M.

EXPERTS—AND QUAKES

Temblor Overdue, Expert Forecasts

MENLO PARK (UPI)—While you are reading this, there may be a major earthquake in California — one worse than the destructive Good Friday quake in Alaska.

On the other hand, no one alive today may witness such a shock.

But the experts say it's coming — sometime.

This point is made in a new and highly readable book on the subject of California earthquakes rushed into print by Lane Book Co. of Menlo Park. The book is entitled "Earthquake Country."

Author of the work is Robert Iacopi and it contains a foreword by Dr. Charles F. Richter, inventor of the well-known scale for measuring the magnitude of tremors.

Quake Overdue

Richter says the book will "help to fill a long-standing gap" between publications that are "either very technical or oversimplified."

Although the author stresses that there is no sure method of earthquake prediction, he ventures that "since the last great earthquake along the Southern California part of the San Andreas fault was in 1857, it would appear that another is overdue."

On the subject of what can be done, he points out that strict building codes, strictly enforced, cut down on destruction when a quake hits since well-constructed buildings near the fault will withstand shakes that will knock down badly-built structures miles away.

Here are some of his suggestions for individuals, when a quake hits:

"If you can get into an open area or field, do so, but take care you aren't in the range of falling debris. In a severe shock, you may not even be able to stand much less walk. Try to get as far as possible from buildings that may collapse.

"But if you are in a downtown area, you should take cover under a doorway, crouch under a desk or table, or roll under a bed. This may supply useful psychological help as well as actual shelter."

"If you are in a building, find some protection by moving fixtures or debris. Stay in a doorway, crouch under a desk or table, or roll under a bed. This may supply useful psychological help as well as actual shelter."

FAIRBANKS, Alaska,

Aug. 17.—"Fairbanks is a goner."

That's how Alaska's Gov. Walter Hickel described this flood-ravaged city yesterday unless it receives immediate aid from the Federal Government.

Desert Storm

Damage By Wind

Roofs of homes were ripped off, house trailers were overturned and damage was estimated at more than $760,000 today in the wake of a storm that ripped through five Southern California and Western Arizona desert communities.

Hardest hit by the high winds and heavy rains which struck Monday night was Lake Havasu City, Colorado River resort community, where damage to 20 homes and 15 trailers was estimated at $700,000.

Five persons were injured, including a sheriff's deputy.

In Arizona, 50 miles from the storm's eye, winds were clocked at 75 mph, flipping over 15 trailers, causing an estimated $100,000 in damage, authorities said.

In Los Angeles, where winds topped 50 mph, street light poles, power and telephone services were interrupted for several hours yesterday, police said.

At Ludlow, about 100 miles west of Lake Havasu, tornado-like winds of up to 106 miles an hour were reported. Roofs were torn from four buildings and two vehicles were destroyed, sheriff's deputies reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Witt, both 47, of Ludlow sustained minor injuries when their trailer was tossed about by the wind, deputies said.

In El Centro, in Imperial County, power poles were knocked down, windows smashed and several planes at the County Airport were damaged, police said.

VISION SHOWN TO DANNY HENRY OF FONTANA, CALIFORNIA OF
A GREAT EARTHQUAKE FOLLOWED BY THE INUNDATION BY THE SEA OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

"At the time of the vision I was at home in Fontana, California. I was in bed, thinking of recent revelations that had been given to members of the church that met at the Chapel in Van Nuys, California, which I was attending; and of revelations that the Lord had shown to me concerning my own life. As the vision began, I was lifted up to the top of Mount San Gorgonio, that lies just north of Banning, California." *

* Note: Mount San Gorgonio lies 70 miles east of Santa Monica Bay of the Pacific Ocean, and about 60 miles east of Los Angeles; the mountain rising 11,485 feet above sea level. This mountain lies adjoining the east side of the great San Andreas fault line in the earth's crust, the fault line passing through Cajon Pass, San Bernadino, Banning, Palm Springs and on over into Arizona eastward, being the same fault line that passes through Tejon Pass at Gorman, California, continuing on up the State of California, passing through San Francisco and Point Arena - P.J.B.

"I could see Mount San Jacinto to the southeast." **

 Note: This mount is about 20 miles southeast of Mount San Gorgonio, and is nearly the same height - P.J.B.

"Looking westward the whole valley was spread out before me; the sun was in the west. I could see the Pacific Ocean in the distance. I wondered why the Lord had set me there; I could feel His presence by the Holy Spirit. It was impressed on me it was a time of momentous events."

"Then the whole country trembled. From the valley floor rose a great cloud of dust as far west as I could see. I could not see any land at all any more, only the dust that rose from where the earth had been in the valley. I never saw the valley floor again. The whole country from Cajon Pass to San Bernadino, on past me disappeared into the dust area, and a shear cliff several thousand feet high appeared along the line where the cleavage of the earth took place in front of where I was standing and extending northwesterly on past Cajon Pass. I saw some rocks falling from this newly created shear cliff that dropped off into the dust below. Then my attention was drawn toward the sea. It was like a silver wave coming in toward me, filling in the area occupied by the dust area, covering over all the land that had dropped below the dust cloud. Then the vision ended, and I was in my bed again, as I had been when the vision started."

-- As told to P. J. Boyd at the Full Gospel Business Men's Breakfast at Clifton's Cafeteria, Los Angeles, in 1962.

LARGE GOLD DEPOSIT POINTED OUT BY MYSTERIOUS VISITANT.

DEAR MICHAEL: You realize that back in the 1800's, many people migrated to Utah to escape the coming World Wars. Most of these people were led BY DREAMS AND VISIONS and other spiritual manifestations by which they were gathered to "Zion" or a refuge from the coming storm. It was this kind of VISION which I had in mind even before I ever heard of the Mormon Church and Salt Lake City.

While working in Bingham Canyon, Utah, helping to install the big air compressor plant, I met a fine young man, a student from the Logan University. He was very spiritual minded and a dreamer of dreams. He was stoking the boilers that supplied the mines with steam power, and the writer spent many hours when off duty, in the warm boiler room where we exchanged ideas.

It was customary for the men in the smaller towns to go in groups or companies to cut cedar posts and fuel wood in the foothills, in the fall of the year, after the crops were all in.

This young man (we'll call him Andrew) told me the following experience. He said that while on one of these wood-cutting expeditions, in the fall of a certain year, they had been cutting and loading up firewood on the racks all day; and after retiring for the night -- sleeping on the ground -- HE WAS AWAKENED BY THE PRESENCE OF AN ILLUMINED PERSON FROM OUTER SPACE who said : "Look down and see what is below."

On looking down into the earth, as it were, he said it was all aglow with light, and away down, he saw as it were, A GREAT TRUNK OF GOLD, and was told : "This is the tree of which the gold mines in the Bingham Mountains are the top branches."

He said he was NOT ASLEEP when he had this manifestation, it was so realistic. He was told that this gold would never be used UNTIL THE DAYS OF TRIBULATION AND ADVERSITY, when it would be REVEALED AND BROUGHT TO LIGHT! (for use by God's people during Time of Trouble)

Now, as far as I am concerned, I do not even know whether Andrew is still alive, but I do know the approximate location where they were cutting cedar wood. You of course realize that knowledge of hidden treasure could be very dangerous, if in the possession of the wrong people. -- "S"

COMMENT: I understand the importance of the young man's vision, and am certain the treasure of gold is actually there. I have not disclosed your name, nor your address nor other information you mentioned in your letter. The treasure is safe, and one of these days when spirit directs, I will join you in a search for it and we will use it as God intends. - M.

"I SEE A GREAT AND DEVASTATING FLAME SWEEPING THE WORLD FROM EAST TO WEST. ."

"I see a great and devastating flame sweeping the world from East to West, a Flame of Fire, a Flame of Sword and Famine, of anger, murder, bitterness and death.

"I see the peoples of the Earth -- each one with his hand lifting against his brothers, each country seeking for its own, men dying and cursing God with every breath and sowing the seed of new and more frightful FLAMES.

"I see descending from on high the mighty angel with the Flaming Sword, for only fire can purify HATE.

"I see the Flame of Purification sweeping the Earth from East to West -- from the rising of the sun to the going down of the sun. FIVE COUNTRIES are left... the rest sink beneath the seas.

"I see a GREAT MOUNTAIN lifted up in the midst of the countries which are left, and from its top there radiates the Light of the Spiritual Sun. I see the remnants of mankind bathed in its radiance. Five countries, five lands... like the fingers of a man's hand.

"Four shall be GREAT and one small, but out of the smallest there grows the greatest LIGHT. There comes redemption. There comes that which alone can make this world to be reborn, once more human, like a babe in a manger, cradled in its mother's arms.

"Think not that any country in this broad world can escape. The Flame sweeps onward and over. Only those who have the flame of the Living Christ in their hearts shall survive. I SPEAK, FOR THIS IS MY WORLD. Into my hands it has been given. I stretch out my hand and each finger represents a point of force, a place the great Living Power of the Sun has breathed in it the life (Fire) which is immortal.

"WHERE ARE MY CHILDREN? They are dying. They are being murdered and starved. They are being scattered like sheep on the cold, bare mountain tops, homeless, friendless. For a time I bow to the inevitable. I wait. I wait that a greater one than I read to you the riddle of this Dark Star."

-- A Dire Prophecy by Curtiss in the "Inner Radiance" book.

COMMENT: The Great Mountain that is to be lifted up is symbolic of a higher Spiritual Consciousness. That is our STRENGTH. -- M.

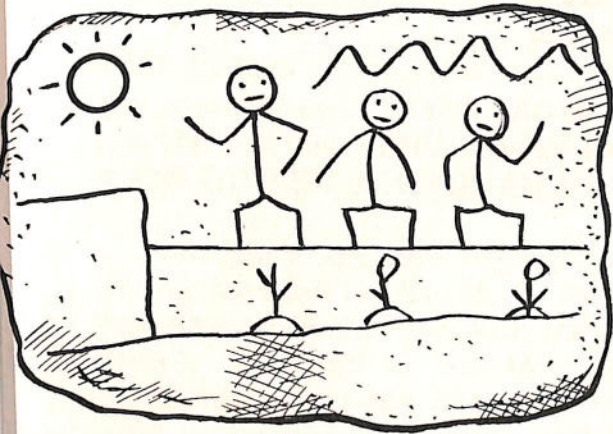

THOUGHT: "If fire is provoked it annihilates."

The "Red Cloak"

Hopi Endtime Prophecy

According to Hopi tradition, theirs is the oldest race to inhabit the continent. Down through the ages has come the story of "first beginnings" when their people, emerging from "darkness", came to occupy this land and to carry out the Great

Central Plan of Life laid down by the Great Spirit. This Central Plan, or "Life Plan" as they refer to it, can be seen in a pictograph cut in stone on a part of the Hopi reservation in Arizona.

Early in their history -- according to Hopi legend -- instructions were written on stone tablets and given to the two sons of the Chief. One remained on the land in Arizona. The other matching tablet was taken by "the brother with the lighter skin" who traveled north together with certain of the people. Later, his journeys took him east, then south and finally into Mexico. The Hopis believe that descendants of the original traveler have found their way into all parts of the world.

They have discovered, in the U. S. at least, remnants of their language and Hopi clan and tribal symbols (the snake, Antelope, Bear, Sun, Swastika, etc.) in every part of the country.

According to tribal lore, one day the wandering brother will return to his birthplace bringing with him the tablet of stone which was carried away. His coming will coincide with EVENTS tied up in the PROPHECY presaged by "long houses which move across the earth and in the sky" (trains and planes), "talk going out all over the land as on a great web" (telephone and telegraph) and by DISTURBANCES in the natural order which effect even the plants and fishes, the atmosphere and the currents in the ocean.

When these things come to pass the Hopis, having suffered much at the hands of the white men, must endeavor "as a testing" to bring before the people the necessity for honoring the precepts laid down by the Great Spirit: i. e., emphasis on recognizing one Supreme Being with Whom all men must cooperate in His work of creating and encouraging life in brotherhood and goodwill.

Should their pleas go unheeded then will come a "man in a red cloak and cap" representing the "purifier". On that day, the people of the United States will waken at breakfast time to a day apparently the same as any other. Before nightfall, however, all transportation and communication will have come to a standstill and "these others" will cover the land "as a swarm of ants". A purge of all that represents greed and power-lust will take place!

If the old Indian Prophecy be correct "the great day of purification" cannot be avoided. The only choice given the White Men is that of voluntarily righting wrongs which have long gone unattended.

For if the long-awaited "cleansing" should fail to be accomplished through the first enforced purging, then others, "coming from the East like a hurricane and without mercy or kindness" will descend upon the land.

SPECIAL NOTE: A first great gathering of American Indians, from many parts of the country, took place on October 19 and 20, 1956 in Hoteville, Arizona. As reported at that time, the expressed purpose for the meeting was to put into action the Life Plan of the Hopi and to begin to carry out the ancient prediction of the DESTRUCTION OF AMERICA and the SALVATION OF THE AMERICAN INDIAN.

Search Magazine, (June 1957) in an article which covered the meeting in detail carried the caption "According to Prophecy, the destiny of America will one day be in the hands of the Hopi, and other Indians once so wronged by white men". Although no mention was made of "the man in the red cloak and cap" or of another possible avenger "to come from the East", the statement was repeatedly made that "someone will come---the call has been made---someone will be inspired." Also that at the time of "purification" one will be carrying a Swastika (the Swastika represents purity to the Hopis) and one will carry the Sun."

The PURIFICATION TIME is now at hand, they say, intimating that those who survive will enjoy the "millenium" to follow -- a time which has been estimated by other prophecies and calculations as probably occurring sometime between 1975 and 1979. --

COMMENT: Some souls may think the Hopi Endtime Prophecy is merely an empty threat, one they cannot possibly implement or "put teeth into". But listen! The Red man is busy in "mystically powerful" ways. Do we not know that the "medicine man" is a past-master at the art of controlling and invoking the elements of Nature? Do we not know that "rain-making" is not a mere figment of fancy, but is a genuine power utilized by certain older heads in the Indian tribes? Yes! Yours truly, though not an Indian, personally experimented in such a rainmaking ceremony, and was literally amazed at the results. Not only did rain come to stop a long siege of drought, but the rain began shortly after the ceremony and continued for a considerable number of days. Was the terrific "Northwest Flood" (the worst in 1000 years) of recent times a "Christmas present" to the White man from the Red man? One dare not laugh or scoff at these ideas, for who is to say that the Indian has not got a far closer relationship with the forces of Mother Nature and with the Great Spirit than we, with all our vaunted machinery and material progress!

Amazing Visions of Christ

I dreamed of being in a large banquet hall on the second floor of a fine hotel. But the gaiety of the banquet was interrupted by a startled cry of some persons who saw a strange sight from the large windows. I went to the window and widened the drapes in order to see what they saw. "It was in the sky", they said.

I looked out and up. There were the usual constellations showing at this time of the night -- the Big Dipper, Little Dipper, Belt of Orion and others -- but I noticed THEY WERE ALL IN BRIGHT COLOR.

Also, they looked about three times larger and closer than usual. Then someone shouted that they were all moving! We were sure it meant the END OF THE WORLD.

Some of the women in their fine dresses began to moan and pray. Most of the men were unusually quiet and simply stood watching. We then noticed that a parting of the stars took place and made a great blank space which began to look like a ROAD IN THE SKY. A small white cloud began to come down this road towards the world, and as it came it grew larger and larger, looking like a GREAT WHITE DISC, but shaped elliptical to our sight as it approached.

This great, glistening, frosty white "cloud" then shimmered and settled about fifty feet above the earth, hovering over a dark spot of vacant ground. I cannot say what country, city or building any of us were near for it wasn't given in the dream.

But there was much LIGHT radiating from the "cloud". A feeling of awe went through our banquet group and we knew instinctively that a VERY GREAT THING WAS TAKING PLACE. The "cloud" began to open up. We knew by now that this was actually a spacecraft from another part of the galaxy bearing a celebrated ruler. For, as the opening widened, we could see very bright light within and could hear CELESTIAL MUSIC much more beautiful than any we have on earth.

By this time a huge crowd had gathered on the ground below, and they were all watching silently and expectantly. In some manner a grand descending stairway was lowered from the ship to the ground. It also was lighted as by the material itself, for we saw no recognizable type of lighting. This "ramp" was wide enough to accomodate two columns of glorious angels and they began to take their places on either side, covering the sides of the ramp as if by some rehearsed plan. Their robes were GLISTENING WHITE and their faces joyously SERENE. Two of them had long golden trumpets and began to blow upon them. Then appeared in the center of the doorway a man dressed in white.

He was not wearing a white robe, but a modern white, tailored suit. Nor was his hair worn long, but neatly trimmed. Yet his expression of supreme control and undisputable WISDOM gave him all the dignity a robe could have given. He began to descend the ramp slowly and alone while the angels at either side sang very softly and beautifully.

"IT IS HE!" We who were looking from the windows agreed, and then, before any further activity took place, I awoke suddenly. -- V.B., Los Angeles.

COMMENT: Your dream is not only beautiful, but amazingly "modern" in that it portrays the Son of Man returning in modern clothes! I am impressed also by the "spaceship" which is featured in the dream, which calls to mind at once the incredible mystery of the UFO's which have been appearing in increasing numbers in the last few years. Your dream does shed light on the mystery by "tieing-in" UFO's with the Second Coming of Christ. It is well known that "saucers" attract moisture to their forcefields and thus ionize "clouds" around themselves. The "coming in the clouds" could mean this. "...And then shall they SEE the Son of Man COMING IN THE CLOUDS with great power and glory..." (New Testament, Mark. Ch. 13, verses 25, 26, 27.

"DOUBTING THOMAS" GETS HEALING

DEAR MICHAEL: My spiritual background? -- up until about three or four years ago I did NOT BELIEVE IN GOD nor know anything of Jesus Christ, as REALITIES. Last February a year ago I at last did profess my belief, although many times prior I had said I wouldn't believe God existed or that there was a Jesus Christ UNLESS I saw the HOLES in his hands!

In February 1965 while hearing a Mr. David Breeze talk here at a place called Bibletown, I saw christ walk up to me with his arms opened so that I could SEE HIS HANDS AND FEET. His head was a large GOLDEN GLOW, a white robe was over his body. Then was when I believed. (Then I knew)

He told me I must get knowledge. I have seen him four times since, each time telling me the same thing...

Last October at a Holy Spirit teaching mission in Ft. Lauderdale, the Lord blessed me by giving me my HEARING back! You see, I had had a 70% deficiency in both ears and wore a hearing aid. I also had cirrhosis of the liver so bad the doctors said I couldn't live over one and half years at the most. Today, thanks to God and Christ I can hear and have no liver trouble.

"THE GOLDEN GLOW"

DEAR MICHAEL: In the mid fifties I had a vision I can't forget. I was convinced then that it was "Christ" and now it seems even more likely that it was. I did not, however, see his face, as the golden glow surrounding his head was so BRIGHT that I could not see it. However, the full body was there. He had beautiful white robes on and the color of the glow was definitely GOLDEN. No words were exchanged. I have never written anyone about this but the compulsion seemed to lead me to the pen and paper.

-- Mrs. S.W., Kansas City, Missouri

COMMENT: Even the worst, most confirmed "doubters" give up trying to "explain Christ away" when they themselves SEE him, in the sort of ETHERIC APPEARANCE that R.F. saw. On top of that, when the doubter is healed of his stubborn physical ills in seconds, like R.F. was, we must conclude that Christ is not merely somebody's idle dream, but REAL.

"I SAW HIM!"

DEAR MICHAEL: I know from personal experience that Christ or the Master can and does REVEAL HIMSELF to those in the right frame of mind, or maybe it is to those whom he chooses to reveal himself. My vision-experience is as follows:

I saw him on March 30th, 1935. He appeared in bust form, his entire figure was not visible. I didn't see the color of his hair as THE LIGHT AROUND HIS FACE WAS AS BRIGHT AS THE SUN. I believe he had a meager beard, but the LIGHT and HIS EYES were what attracted me most.

As I looked upon his face, every longing of my heart seemed to be satisfied. There were ten or twelve other faces with him. I don't know who they were, but thought the one in the lower left corner of the group was Elijah. Their faces were small and insignificant. The face of CHRIST was in the center of the group, and seemed about four times as large as the others. That light around him illumined the other faces.

While in the presence of this vision there seemed to be a soothing form of electricity flowing in a circle from Christ to me and then to my son and back to Christ. I experienced this unforgettable vision whilst my oldest son was in a hospital dying. He was 21 years old. -- Mrs. K.F., Rockwood, Penna.

DEAR MICHAEL: I feel that I must witness unto the things that were revealed to me by the Lord Jesus in dreams. Please be patient with me and my writing...I have no schooling. I am a common man, but God is with me. Since 1913 things have been shown to me in my dreams. As to my age, in July of 1967 I was 81. Now here is my dream.

On September 25, 1965 I dreamed I was walking on a street in Canonsburg, Pennsylvania, towards the East. Ahead of me was a man dressed in a blue suit and black hat. He was about twenty feet in front of me. Suddenly, I heard a most terrible quake in heaven, and looking up, I saw seven highways full of angels telling me tell people to get right with the Lord because he is coming soon. The roaring sound coming from the highways was the same as that of airplanes, and immediately I woke up. -- T.C., Washington, Pennsylvania.

COMMENT: Your dream-message that the "Lord is coming soon" is being multiplied in a most incredible way, in that men and women all over the world are starting to "receive" a similar message. For instance, a lady I know told me she woke up early one morning with the words: "THE LORD IS COMING DOWN" running through her mind. The doubters of course, have the old argument that "Jesus hasn't returned in two thousand years because the whole story is just a big religious MYTH." Faithful Christians, on the other hand, point to the promise: "This same Jesus which is taken up from you into heaven (by means of a spaceship like the one that lifted up Elijah) shall so come in like manner (by spaceship fleet) as ye have seen him go into heaven." -- Acts 1:11. -- Michael.

MY STRANGEST VISION (May 25, 1963)

DEAR MICHAEL: I awakened this A.M., as if by a LOUD THUNDER and retaining a VISION to remember and remember!!! As I jumped out of bed, my pet came quickly to me and I remarked "Did that awaken you too?" It seemed so real, and stayed with me as I woke up.

The vision was of standing just above a sea...a very natural and fairly calm sea. To my right was a large white structure (not a boat) and there seemed to be someone with me on my left though not so distinct as the rest. I was facing towards the sunrise as there was quite a glow of the dawn at sunrise. (rising sun) Then came a thought spoken to the one with me: "We must go in now."

Then all of a sudden a great calm came and such a stillness -- and the entire scene then had a very peculiar look about -- a "set" look --no movement to the sea and the light was so strange. I couldn't adequately describe it. Then there arose up from somewhere back of the WHITE STRUCTURE a BLACK CLOUD that really wasn't like a cloud but more like SMOKE.

The quietness that came was of the "feeling effect" as when birds are chattering and suddenly they get a SIGNAL -- all noise stops and the birds are QUIET! When the cloud came billowing up like BLACK SMOKE then came the crash of THUNDER into that noiselessness and it was then I woke up!!!

COMMENT: I am sure we must look to the Book of Revelation here, for it apparently deals with the time of the Seventh Angel, the sealing of the 144,000, the tribulation, etc. Your vision featured a GREAT CALM or STILLNESS. Let's read Rev. 8:1 "And when he opened the seventh seal, there was SILENCE in heaven about the space of half and hour."

During this SILENCE, the four angels seal the servants of God in their foreheads. Then, having finished that, they say: "We must go in now. That is, now the time is here when we must release the four WINDS (hurricanes, cyclones, storms, floods, fires, droughts) we have held back." This means natural disturbances begin to increase dramatically, world-wide, but particularly in America, for it is really the "Time of Jacob's Trouble" that is upon us, and not the "Great Tribulation" as yet. "Jacob's Trouble" is symbolized in your vision by the great cloud of billowing BLACK SMOKE...very much like the BLACK GLOBE seen by "S. L." BLACK in this case is taken to represent "destructive forces" of all sorts, natural disasters, riots, wars, etc.

SEES EARTH CRACK OPEN! (a Vision) 3/9/'65

DEAR MICHAEL: My friend Mrs. Hutton and I have many visions and soul-experiences we can share with you. Recently, Mrs. Hutton had a very unusual and astounding vision, in which she went up in an airplane, then changed in mid-air to a LARGER PLANE and was flying over the Earth...and she saw the Earth crack open down the middle! The second plane into which she transferred while in the air, had three floor-levels in it.

News Item: WORLD-DESTROYING WAR PREDICTED

DALTON, Ga., Aug. 16. - (A. P.) - The 82-year-old leader of a religious group which owns all its members' property says congregations are moving here from all parts of the nation to wait for a world-destroying war. He declined to estimate the number en route.

"The way things are going," said the Rev. C. T. Pratt today, "it doesn't look like we're going to have long to wait, does it?"

Mr. Pratt, 82, is moderator of the Church of God of the Union Assembly. He said the sect holds deeds to all its members' private property. "Ain't nobody owns anything in our church but the church," he added.

"The Russian dragon is going to destroy the Catholic Church in Rome, and the Catholic Church is going to destroy Israel, and that will be the end of things," Mr. Pratt predicted. -- Seattle Newspaper article, 8-26-61.

COMMENT: Let's see, Mr. Pratt. How long has it been since you made your prediction? Nearly seven years. I'd call it a long wait.

The White Horse Vision

One of the most amazing prophecies in the collection of the author is the one given by Joseph Smith, founder of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints... commonly known as the Mormon Church. This prophecy is reprinted from a book published in Salt Lake City in the year 1890, over a half century ago. It predicts that a terrible revolution will take place in America, such as has never been before. (far worse than the Civil War) for the land will be left without a Supreme Government, and every species of evil will be rampant.

In this prophecy the White Horse represents the members of the Mormon Church, The Pale Horse represents residents of the United States who are non-Mormons, the Red Horse signifies American Indians, the Black Horse is the colored people of the United States.

The following is a copy from the Journal of Elder John, J. Roberts, of Paradise, Utah. The original compiler of this prophecy was Edwin Rushton.

THE PROPHECY

On or about the sixth day of May, 1843, a grand review of the Nauvoo Legion was held in Nauvoo. The Prophet Joseph complimented them for their good discipline and evolutions performed. The weather being hot, he called for a glass of water. With the glass of water in his hand he said, "I drink to you a toast to the overthrow of the mobocrats." Which he did in the following language:

"Here's wishing they were in the middle of the sea in a stone canoe with iron paddles, and that a shark swallowed the canoe and the Devil swallow the shark, and himself locked up in the northwest corner of hell, the key lost and a blind man looking for it."

The next morning a man who had heard the Prophet give the toast returned to visit the mansion of the Prophet, and so abused him with bad language that the man was ordered out by the Prophet. It was while the two were out that my attention was attracted to them and hearing the man speaking in a loud tone of voice, I went toward them; the man finally leaving. There were present the Prophet Joseph Smith, Theodore Turley and myself. The Prophet began talking to us of the mobbings and drivings and persecutions we as a people have endured, but, said he, "We will have worse things to see; our persecutors will have all the mobbings they want. Don't wish them any harm, for when you see their sufferings you will shed bitter tears for them."

While this conversation was going on we stood by his south wicket gate in a triangle. Turning to me he said: "I want to tell you something. I will speak in a parable like unto John the Revelator. You will go to the Rocky Mountains, and you will be a great and mighty people established there, which I will call the White Horse of Peace and Safety." When the Prophet said "You will see it," I asked him, "Where will you be at that time?" He said, "I shall never go there. Your enemies will continue to follow you with persecutions and will make obnoxious laws against you in Congress to destroy the White Horse, but you will have a friend or two to defend you to throw out the worst part of the laws, so they will not hurt much. You must continue to petition Congress all the time, but they will treat you like strangers and aliens and they will not give you your rights but will govern you with strangers and commissioners; you will see the constitution of the United States ALMOST DESTROYED. IT WILL HANG BY A THREAD, AS IT WERE, AS FINE AS THE FINEST SILK FIBER."

At this point the Prophet's countenance became sad. He said, "I love the constitution. It was made by the inspiration of God, and it will be preserved and saved by the efforts of the White Horse and the Red Horse, who will combine in its defense. The White Horse will raise an ensign on the tops of the mountains of peace and safety. The White Horse will find the mountains full of minerals and they will become very rich. You will see silver piled up in the streets.

"You will see gold shoveled up like sand. Gold will be of little value even in a mercantile capacity, for the people of the world will have something else to do in seeking for salvation.

"THE TIME WILL COME WHEN THE BANKS IN EVERY NATION WILL FAIL AND ONLY TWO PLACES WILL BE SAFE WHERE PEOPLE CAN DEPOSIT THEIR GOLD AND TREASURES. THESE PLACES WILL BE THE WHITE HORSE AND ENGLAND'S VAULTS.

"A TERRIBLE REVOLUTION WILL TAKE PLACE IN THE LAND OF AMERICA, SUCH AS HAS NEVER BEEN SEEN BEFORE; for the land will be literally left without a supreme government, and every species of wickedness will run rampant. Father will be against son, and son against father; mother against daughter, and daughter against mother. The most terrible scenes of murder and bloodshed and rapine that have ever been looked upon will take place. Peace will be taken from the earth and there will be no peace only in the Rocky Mountains. This will cause many hundred and thousands of the honest in heart to gather there; not because they would be saints but for safety and because they would not take up the sword against their neighbor.

"You will be so numerous that you will be in danger of famine, but not for the want of seed time and harvest, but because of so many to be fed. Many will come with bundles under their arms to escape the calamities, and there will be no escape except by fleeing to Zion.

"Those that come to you will try to keep the laws and be one with you, for they will see your unity and the greatness of your organization. The Turkish Empire or the Crescent will be one of the first powers that will be disrupted, for freedom must be given for the Gospel to be preached in the Holy Land.

"The Lord took of the best blood of the nations and planted them on the small islands now called England and Great Britain, and gave them great power in the nations for a thousand years and their power will continue with them, that they may keep the balance of power and keep Russia from usurping her power over all the world. England and France are now bitter enemies, but they will be allied together and be united to keep Russia from conquering the world.

"The two Popes, Greek and Catholic, will come together and be united. The Protestant religions do not know how much they are indebted to Henry the VIII for throwing off the Pope's Bull and establishing the Protestant faith. He was the only monarch who could do so at the time, and he did it because this nation, England, was at his back to sustain him. One of the peculiar features in England is the established red coat, a uniform making so remarkable a mark to shoot at, and yet they have conquered wherever they have gone. The reason for this will be known by them some day. The Lion and the Unicorn of Israel is their ensign, the wisdom and statesmanship of England comes from having so much of the blood of Israel in the nation.

"While the terrible revolution of which I have spoken has been going on, England will be neutral until it becomes so inhuman that she will interfere to stop the shedding of blood. England and France will unite to make peace, not to subdue the nations; they will find the nations so broken up and so many claiming government, till there will be no responsible government. Then it will appear to the other nations or powers as though England had taken possession of the country. THE BLACK HORSE WILL FLEE TO THE INVADERS AND WILL JOIN WITH THEM, for they will have fear of becoming slaves again, knowing England did not believe in slavery, fleeing to them they believe would make them safe. Armed with British bayonets, the doings of the Black Horse will be terrible." (Here the Prophet said he could not bear to look longer upon the scene as shown him in vision and asked the Lord to close the scene)

Continuing, he said, "During this time the great White Horse will have gathered strength sending out Elders to gather the honest in heart among the Pale Horse (People of the United States) to stand by the Constitution of the United States, as it was given by inspiration of God.

"In these days God will set up a kingdom, never to be thrown down, for other kingdoms to come unto. And these kingdoms that will not let the Gospel be preached will be humbled until they will. England, Germany, Norway, Denmark, Sweden, Switzerland, Holland, and Belgium have a considerable amount of the blood of Israel among their people which must be gathered. These nations will submit to the kingdom of God. England will be the last of these kingdoms to surrender, but when she does she will do it as a whole in comparison as she threw off the Catholic power. The nobility know that the Gospel is true but it has not enough pomp and grandeur and influence for them to embrace it. They are proud and will not acknowledge the kingdom of God, or come unto it, until they see the power which it will have. Peace and Safety in the Rocky Mountains will be protected by a cordon band of the White Horse and the Red Horse.

"The coming of the Messiah among this people will be so natural, that only those who see Him will know that He has come, but He will come and give His laws unto Zion, and minister unto His people. This will not be His coming in the clouds of heaven to take vengeance on the wicked of the world.

"The Temple in Jackson County will be built in this generation. The saints will think there will not be time to build it, but with all the help you will receive you can put up a great temple quickly. They will have all the gold, silver, and precious stones; for these things only will be used for the beautifying of the temple; all the skilled mechanics you want, and the Ten Tribes of Israel will help you build it. When you see this land bound with iron you may look toward Jackson County."

At this point he made a pause, and looking up as though the vision was still in view, he said, "THERE IS A LAND BEYOND THE ROCKY MOUNTAINS THAT WILL BE INVADED BY THE HEATHEN CHINESE UNLESS GREAT CARE AND PROTECTION ARE GIVEN."

Speaking of the heathen nations he said, "Where there is no law there is no condemnation, and this will apply to them. Power will be given the White Horse to rebuke nations afar off, and they will be one with the White Horse, but when the law goes forth they will obey; for the law will go forth from Zion. (Important Note: In a letter to a newspaper publisher in 1883, Joseph Smith wrote: "The city of Zion, spoken of by David, in the one hundred and second Psalm, will be built upon the land of America." Further on in that latter, he mentioned "...Zion, which is in the State of Missouri." However, unless we wish to be hidebound on this point, we should bear in mind that the word "Zion" means "the heavenly estate" which essentially derives from a higher, Godlike consciousness. This is not limited to the State of Missouri.)

"THE LAST GREAT STRUGGLE Zion will have to contend with will be when the whole of the Americas will be made the Zion of our God. Those opposing will be called Gog and Magog and their power will be great, but all opposition will be overcome and then this land will be the Zion of our God."

The Sun Became Brighter...

DEAR MICHAEL: It was December 24, 1938. I was alone in my mother's apartment in New York recuperating from a bad cold. Rather suddenly I was plunged into a visionary state, where the following panorama was unfolded to my eyes in great detail, and in full "technicolor" as it were. It went on for a long time and I took notes on it as fast as I could. Here is the gist of the VISION: -

It began with a view of the entire vast gross world -- showing each great island universe with its billions of stars, gradually lining up along ONE axis like a series of lens in a telescope. As they aligned along this central axis, a beam of GOD-LIGHT was focused and brought down from the original AUM POINT or most finite point of creation, and it focused finally on our Earth.

I was then shown the Earth as if from far out in space but with every detail clear. Suddenly BLACK AREAS began to erupt and spread across the planet, beginning in Germany, Italy, Russia and then Japan... covering the light areas. Soon the Earth was covered to a great extent with these DARK SPOTS. Significant "dates" appeared lettered on certain areas in rapid succession. Then the black receded, but there were smaller flareups in the Far East and in the Middle East.

Then came a fiery dark inferno. Even the sun "stood still" covered by DARK CLOUDS. A bright STAR or COMET seemed to hurtle closer to the Earth through the sky, creating great waves in the oceans, that engulfed the coasts of the world and causing great earthquakes on land. In the havoc and hunger that followed these days, brother turned against brother. Also, brother helped brother.

Then I found myself standing on a great plain where thousands of persons were gathered. Waves of ineffable bliss, peace and love flowed through us all and focused on a great Sun in the East, then poured out again through us in tones of exquisite LIGHT-COLOR-MUSIC-BLISS making us all feel ONE with each other. We were like a field of wheat rippling in an invisible wind of divine LOVE. The sun became brighter and appeared as a MAN with definite features -- dark eyes, flowing auburn hair -- as all about him in a circle sat his disciples each with distinct features, East and West.

I knew this was the re-appearance of the Christ or Avatar of the Age from the East. The New Age had begun, with a transformation of consciousness,

The gift of the God-Man to all men and indeed to the whole Universe. This was a descent of the God-Force, at the juncture of one great overcycle of evolution, the end of one Age with the beginning of another. Such a juncture causes great SUFFERING and also GREAT BLISS. The God-Force, focused through the giant lens of Maya, centered on our Earth in the form of the God-Man, yet it affected all Creation.

At this time (1938) I had no knowledge of Meher Baba, but when I came to know of him in 1942, I recognized him instantly as the face of the God-Man in this vision; and as I met his disciples, one by one, I also recognized their faces. Each date shown so clearly on certain areas was verified in the Second World War. THE REST IS STILL AHEAD. The year 1968 definitely begins the second cycle of events. One can accept or reject Avatar Meher Baba -- the world will do both -- but surely the SIGN of God is on him and his deeds.

I learned later that Baba has said there would be a third World War: "Man would begin it, but it would be so terrible that God would have to end it."

COMMENT: The above vision is certainly one of the most remarkable we have come upon, in our search for amazing visions. I call your attention, dear reader, to the incredible fact which "P.F." herself has pointed out, namely that "each date shown on certain areas was VERIFIED in the Second World War." Yet, there is MORE to come. According to her amazing vision, which was highly pre-cognitive and prophetic, we are yet to witness "havoc and hunger" on a terrific scale when "a fiery dark INFERNO" "grazes" this Earth. Perhaps most serious of all, World War III, which... according to Meher Baba, man WILL begin, but which will be ended by Divine Intervention lest no flesh be saved. Yet, in these terrible times, the spiritually awakened ones will gather around the manifested Light. -- M.

"THE ISLAND SANK RAPIDLY..."

DEAR MICHAEL: I woke up early on January 1, 1948, and saw that the sun seemed to be much bigger than usual and it was rotating first this way then that, like a giant gear train of wheels within wheels, in a very subtle but definite rhythm. Then I "fell back" in consciousness to a very ancient time and "lived through" the following:

I lived on an island in the ocean with very beautiful cities and temples built upon it. I was a young initiate or priestess of a group of women renunciates. There was an opposite group of men initiates. They were great adepts, especially in reading the patterns and cycles of the stars. Their temples were pyramidal in shape. But a certain corruption had set in and their groups were infiltrated by a clique of very degenerate priests and priestesses who broke their vows and misused their highly developed occult powers to mislead the people into bad actions.

The leader of our women's group was a saint. She had pointed out a young, beautiful boy as being the Avatar or Divine Incarnation of the Age. But this evil clique opposed him. One day they seized him and dressing him in mock priestly robes, threw him into the sea. This sacrilegious act very soon had terrible consequences. It brought on a natural catastrophe; the seas rose up and the island sank rapidly... leaving no trace.

However, our leader had been forewarned and had prepared several boats with provisions. We hurried into these (the few faithful ones) and just barely cleared the maelstroms of the sinking island. Now began a journey of great duration and stress. Some of the boats became separated from us by storms, and went East while we continued West, facing hunger and death. But this woman's great courage kept us going until we landed on a new continent.

When I came out of this visionary state I recognized at once the woman saint as a woman I had met and known in this life and through whom I heard of Meher Baba, the Avatar of this Age. She was one of his chief women disciples and a great soul. I also got the feeling that we had landed on the east coast of America, about where South Carolina is today -- and incidentally, where the first Western Spiritual Center is dedicated to Meher Baba, at Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. I also had the feeling that those who went East landed in Africa, and much of their knowledge was carried down the ages by the Egyptians...as perhaps "our" group carried it to Central America. Significantly, both groups built PYRAMID TEMPLES and knew astronomy.

The natural catastrophe following the rejection of the Avatar of the Age came at a junction of one great overcycle of evolution with another -- and is CORRELATIVE to our time. Avatar Meher Baba has predicted that men will reject him and put a violent end to his life, which will precipitate GREAT NATURAL DISASTERS ON OUR EARTH.

Shortly after, in late January of 1948, we received Baba's circular saying that his new life phase began on January 1st, 1948, and signified the end of the (false) beginning, and the beginning of the (true) end."...something none of us knew on January 1, 1948 in the United States. -- P.S. I had never read nor studied any material on "Atlantis" at time of my vision.

Said Father Arrupe ■ New York's Church of St. Ignatius Loyola: "It is not the new world I fear. I am afraid rather that we Jesuits may have little or nothing to offer this world, little to say or do that would justify our existence as Jesuits. I am afraid that we may repeat yesterday's answers to tomorrow's problems, talk in a way men no longer understand, speak a language that does not speak to the heart of living man. IF WE DO THIS, we shall more and more be talking to ourselves; no one will listen, because no one will understand what we are trying to say."

COMMENT: Amen, Father. Amen! The times they are a-changin'. -- M.

SEES CALIFORNIA COAST FLOODED

DEAR MICHAEL: I feel compelled to write you concerning a VISION which I had a few years ago, I have forgotten now just what year it was -- perhaps around 1960. Here it is:

Suddenly, I looked skyward. THREE large, black balls were falling from the sky! I felt the urgency, but knew no fear and felt confident that my husband and I would be saved. Then it happened! A plane of peculiar shape came and we were lifted up into it. It seemed to be of long, narrow shape with an observation compartment at one end, similar to the helicopters one sees today. My husband was taken inside to a conference of some twelve or more people while I remained in the observation compartment to see what was happening below. We were flying in a south-easterly direction about what would seem to be a half-mile high.

As I looked down I saw a great inundation of water flowing inland and in it were houses and other buildings churning and tossing about. The area that I was looking upon was inland from around Seal Beach, Huntington Beach, and the coastline on southward. AS I WATCHED A GREAT HAND FROM HEAVEN-WARD CAME AND STIRRED THE WATERS. (This represented to me that the catastrophe was "an act of God" such as a tidal wave following earthquakes or other disturbances.) The vision ended. No time-date was given me, but I felt that it was to be in the very near future. This vision came to me when we were living in the southern part of the city.

Many visions have been given to me throughout my lifetime and I am just now beginning to have the interpretations of some of them. I have seen the GREAT COSMIC CLOCK in the heavens pointing to the hour of almost 12 O'clock. I knew at that time (around 1945 or 1946) that the "End Time" of the Earth or rather the old form of life and consciousness was short, and I know now that Time has truly been SHORTENED and events accelerated even more, and I also feel the "urgency" which many mention.

WHAT AN 80-YEAR OLD NUN TOLD A VISITOR IN SWITZERLAND

"We have a great number of nuns from Spain and Germany now studying here (Mt. Scholastica Convent). They told us that Saint Odilia or Ottilia in the 8th Century predicted in the many mystic experiences she had, that 1967 was the year of revelation and the beginning of the spiritual enlightenment of the human race." The 80-year old nun believes that in this year the Secret of Fatima (undisclosed since 1917) will be revealed.

"AND A THUNDEROUS VOICE SAID...!"

I had an experience in which I seemed to climb up a winding pathway, at the top of which was a beautiful TEMPLE. It was surrounded by a high wall in which was an ornate gate. I was taken only to the gate, but not allowed to go through into the Temple. I was then told to return to the physical or earthly realm and to give out the lessons I had received until I was ready to enter the Temple. I had been greatly disappointed that I had not gotten inside the Temple, which seemed to be my greatest desire, but it seemed unattainable.

As I sat in meditation a few weeks later, I directed my attention to the Teachers. I sent out my call to them in the form of the prolonged AUM on the outlet of the full breath. I ran the entire scale of notes in this way until the pitch was so high I continued it in my mind only. As I finished this, my consciousness was filled with innumerable beings of the Brotherhood, who all stood about me in an immense circle. I could not identify any of the faces, but I had a wonderful sense of peace and joy.

As they were all gathered around, a voice spoke, saying, "No one enters with you into the Inner Sanctum. There you go alone." Immediately they all withdrew and I was left alone. I could not understand what they had meant but I sat quietly for a few moments and then came my most wondrous experience. I was first aware of a pure WHITE LIGHT. Then I was INSIDE A BEAUTIFUL TEMPLE which seemed to be of white marble but with an iridescent quality. It was suffused with the same white light which seemed to have no specific source but seemed to scintillate. Then I was no longer "seeing" the Temple, but I was actually "being" the Temple, and a thunderous voice said, "YE ARE THE TEMPLE OF THE LIVING GOD!"

"THE WINDING-UP OF HUMAN HISTORY..."

We are without question in the time of the winding-up of human history as we have hitherto known it. We are in the very throes -- the death throes of the old and the birth pangs of the new -- of the "Second Coming". Says Truth: "I mean the New Age by the Coming Again." This may not take place in the way many of us have been led to expect, or perhaps I should say that we would be wise not to feel limited to any conventional image of its expression. This does not mean that the biblical prophecies are not to be fulfilled in one form or another. They are already being fulfilled and we are reaching the climax sooner than many of us expect. We need especially to learn from the lesson of Pentecost to EXPECT THE UNEXPECTED.

Let us be content to accept that in bringing His Divine Plan to fruition "God works in a mysterious way." We now seeing a vast array of witnesses springing up and testifying to the factual nature of VISIONS AND REVELATIONS of all kinds, and for Christians to continue to think that the final Revelation of God has been given once and for all time may well serve as a block to a full understanding of everything that is now going on.

Other Great Ones, such as Meher Baba who, like Sri Aurobindo, is regarded by his followers as the last Avatar, may be viewed, I suggest, as Cosmic Masters preparing those brought within their sphere of spiritual influence for the Day of Revelation, the Day of Manifestation, which will mark in a particular and universal way the Christing of the whole earth and the true beginning of the Golden Age -- the Rule of Love and Truth. These and other spiritual lights are appearing in their astral and etheric counterparts in VISIONS AND DREAMS to those who are attuned to their vibrations throughout the world, even as Jesus continues to appear to those who are especially attuned to him...

How can we, then, best prepare ourselves for this climax of events which is so soon to occur?... Revelation is going forth by word and by the activity of the Holy Spirit to all who are open to receive it. It is, like the basic teaching of Jesus Christ, available not only to those who have come to call themselves Christians but to all men, women and children everywhere.

... Realization thinking -- spontaneous knowledge -- these are the keynotes to the New Age and to our transformed condition. Perhaps the best we can do individually is meditate and pray about the tremendous things we have considered together... and earnestly seek an answer to the question: "ARE THESE THINGS TRUE?" We are assured that to all who persevere in sincere seeking an answer will be given. Those of us who are aspiring to live and follow the teaching and example of Jesus Christ should, it seems to me, above all else take care to guard against the holding of any concept or view about these things which might tend, however remotely, to place a limit on the Love, Power and Saving Grace of God for the whole of His Creation. *****
