NEW PUBLICATION

In God's Hand: Explanations of Spirituality in Meher Baba's Own Hand.

120 pages. Hardcover $30.00.

This book represents an event unprecedented in mankind's recorded history: the God-Man writing about God in His own hand.

Sometime around 1925, Meher Baba wrote out, in pencil on inexpensive notebook paper, thirty-nine pages of explanations on spirituality. Recently come to light, these handwritten pages record basic truths about God and illusion, Light and darkness, the dream of creation and the awakening to Self — themes at the heart of all of Baba's spiritual explanations in later works. Here is a vivid picture of Meher Baba's dynamic personality in his early years: his quicksilver energy and vitality, his fluid changes of mood and style, his astonishing creativity. The manuscript is all the more precious because, after 1927, Meher Baba stopped writing altogether, except for signing His name.

In this edition, prepared by the Avatar Meher Baba Perpetual Public Charitable Trust, the manuscript pages have been presented in facsimile, in full color and actual size, recreating the remarkable beauty of the originals. For those who would like to study the content of Baba's explanations more closely, the facsimile is followed by a supplement containing a printed text of each page, translations of non-English words, footnotes and textual aids.

This is a book to cherish, to read over and over again, and to pass on to future generations.

God Speaks by Meher Baba.

374 pp., Supplement, charts, glossary, index. Hardcover $27.00.

The many diffuse concepts of spiritual truth as well as new and detailed thought patterns are clarified and brought together in this monumental work. The book describes the intricate process of reincarnation and the inward journey along the spiritual path as the soul consciously returns to the Oversoul of its origin. It covers "The Planes," "States of Divine Consciousness" and includes seven charts.

Discourses by Meher Baba.

452 pp., 7th Edition. Paperback $15.00. Hardcover $25.00.

Meher Baba's Discourses throws the light of true knowledge on many of life's most perplexing problems. Inspiring and practical, Discourses provides an ever-fresh framework of spiritual perspective on the challenges of everyday life. As Meher Baba stated, "Words that proceed from the Source of Truth have real meaning." Discourses bears eloquent testimony to that fact and will remain an incomparable companion for those seeking spiritual direction.

MEHER BABA... (1894-1969)

Merwan Sheriar Irani known as Meher Baba, was born in Pune, India, on February 25, 1894, of Persian parents. In 1913 while still in college, a momentous event occurred in Baba's life... the meeting with Hazrat Babajan, an ancient Mohammedan woman and one of the five Perfect Masters of the Age. Babajan gave him God-Realization and made him aware of his high spiritual destiny.

His spiritual mission began in 1921 when he drew together his first close disciples. It was these early disciples who gave him the name Meher Baba, which means "Compassionate Father."

After years of intensive training of his disciples, Meher Baba established a colony near Ahmednagar (India) that is called Meherabad. Here the Master's work embraced a free school where spiritual training was stressed, a free hospital and dispensary, and shelters for the poor. No distinction was made between the high castes and untouchables; all mingled in common fellowship through the inspiration of the Master.

Meher Baba told his disciples that from July 10, 1925 he would observe silence. Since that day he maintained silence until his death in 1969. His many spiritual discourses and messages were dictated by means of an alphabet board. In 1954, the Master discontinued the use of the board and reduced all communication to hand gestures unique in expressiveness and understandable to many.

An important part of Meher Baba's work through the years has been to personally contact and to serve hundreds of those known in India as "masts." These are advanced pilgrims on the spiritual path who have become spiritually intoxicated from direct awareness of God.

Meher Baba asserts that he is the same Ancient One, come again to redeem man from his bondage of ignorance and to guide him to realize his true Self which is God. Meher Baba is acknowledged by his many followers all over the world as the Avatar of the Age.

THAT'S HOW IT WAS: STORIES OF LIFE WITH MEHER BABA

by Eruch Jessawala.
406 pp.
Paperback $15.00.
Hardcover $25.00.

Eruch Jessawala's stories of Meher Baba have enthralled listeners in Mandali Hall at Meherazad for more than 25 years.

Now in one volume are collected the best of those stories, including the contents of two earlier books, Is That So? and Determined To Be His, and more than 100 pages of new stories and perceptions, all of them tightly focused on following, loving and obeying the Avatar.

SELFLESS SERVICE

WHAT YOU SAY IS TRUE. Baba did stress selfless service, but do you mean to say that there is no thought of your self in your service? There will be, brother, there will be. I am saying this not because I know you, but because I know myself. No matter how hard we tried to be selfless, some thought of ourselves would creep in—"Oh, I have done such a good deed today," and we would get a little puffed up at the thought. It is human nature. That is why I tell people do not think so much of selfless service, real selfless service is impossible until you are realized, but concentrate on doing those things which enable you to forget yourself. When you lose yourself in your work, when you become totally absorbed in it so that you forget yourself, that is selfless service, even if the work itself does not seem to be. But this also is not easy. Even when we wake up from a deep, deep sleep, sometimes we may forget for a moment or two where we are, but we never forget who we are. When we were traveling with Baba I might wake up and for just a moment or two not realize where I was, but I never woke up wondering who I was, the thought "I am Eruch" was always with me. It is still with me, or I wouldn't be here this way talking to you at all. Anything and everything we do, all of our attempts at self-forgetfulness, at selflessness, they only succeed in creating impressions which bind us. There is no way out of this. There are even people who seem to be great spiritual figures, yogis who can do all sorts of what we would call miracles, and they have not succeeded in forgetting themselves. Sometimes, in fact,

The following dream is not unique in the sense that my sisters assure me they too have had a similar dream experience. But for me it is very special because of my interplay with Baba during such dreams whenever they occur.

First I'm going through an ordinary dream. Suddenly the gray change and I find myself fully awake within the dream. i.e. I'm fully aware that I'm dreaming. I find myself performing impossible feats like flying over trees and touching the clouds, with a sense of freedom and abandon unknown in wake state. And I tell myself, "Oh how I want this dream to continue on and on!" But I also know that Baba will never allow it, that shortly after I'm aware that I'm dreaming, Baba will switch off the dream. God-Brother: Stories from my Childhood with Meher Baba by Mani S. Irani.
160 pp., Paperback $12.00.

Meher Baba was 24 years old when his sister, Mani, was born.

God-Brother is Mani Irani's account of her childhood with Meher Baba, when, even at that age, he was the pivot point of her life. Childhood stories they may be, but they carry with them the deeper meanings and understandings that come with Mani's long, close association with the Avatar of the Age. And their innate charm is enhanced by Wodin's free-spirited illustrations.

Baba Loved Us Too: Stories of Meher Baba and His Pets by Mehera J. Irani.
Illustrated. 172 pp., Paperback $8.95.

These stories of Meher Baba's pets come straight from Mehera's porch at Meherazad - site of the telling of many a tale about the Avatar over the past 30 years. Running, flying and tail-wagging through these stories are the likes of Sheeba and Mastan, Lucky and Jumpu, Mittu and Foundy, Peter and Begum and many more, all beloved of the Avatar.

The Art of Conversing With God

The Samadhi: Star of Infinity by Bal Natu.

142 pp., Paperback $12.00.

In a deeply heartfelt and thought-provoking meditation on the unique significance of Meher Baba's Samadhi in India, Bal Natu shares his personal reflections and convictions on its special role in the Avatar's advent.

Tracing the history of the Samadhi – the chronology of how Meher Baba established the resting place for his physical form – Bal also reveals the evolution over many years of his own deepening relationship to "the Divine Satellite" (as he calls Baba's tomb).

Conversations with The Awakener by Bal Natu.

124 pp., Paperback $10.00.

From the pen of Bal Natu, author of the Glimpses series, comes this extraordinarily inspiring collection of internal conversations with the Beloved. Simple and soaring, poignant and funny, these conversations allow us to eavesdrop on an intensely personal relationship between a lover and his Lord. A huge favorite.

More Conversations with The Awakener by Bal Natu.

100 pp., Paperback $10.00.

Readers who demanded "more" after publication of Bal Natu's Conversations with The Awakener in 1991 have another feast in store with this second volume. Here are seventeen more intimate talks between a man and his creator, between this man and his best friend, talks that draw us into the very personal relationship between master and disciple. Readers will find their own personal connections represented in these conversations: the sweetness, the love, the frustrations – all the aspects of a life lived with awareness of the presence of the God-Man.

Intimate Conversations with The Awakener by Bal Natu.

100 pp., 1998. Paperback $12.00.

In response to letters Bal Natu describes Conversations as: "The Source of these conversations with the ever-renewing Awakener, the One residing in each one's being, is unconditional Love which sustains life. This Love is all the time waiting for the slightest genuine response from the heart, and the conversation begins." Intimate Conversations, the third volume in the series, contains nineteen new conversations.

Life with Baba

ANOTHER CLASSIC
— BACK IN PRINT

Love Alone Prevails by Kitty Davy. Second Edition.
744 pp., Illustrated with over 100 photographs. Paperback $30.00.

Out of print for several years, this incredible account of life with Meher Baba will be available again early 2001. Here, Kitty Davy, one of the earliest of Meher Baba's western disciples, weaves the story of fifty of her years with Meher Baba. She starts with her 1931 meeting with him in London, goes on to accounts of visits to India and European cities with him, to the fifteen years she spent with him in India and finally to America where she became an integral part of the life of the Meher Spiritual Center and the lives of those who came there between 1952 and Kitty's passing in 1991. For those who knew Kitty and were recipients of the love that came through her, this book provides an incomparable memoir. For those who never knew her, it offers a uniquely clear look at what discipleship really means.

VIDEO OF EARLY WESTERNERS

Memoirs of the Frivolous Three: An Evening with Margaret Craske, Kitty Davy and Delia DeLeon.

MARGARET CRASKE

The Dance of Love: My Life with Meher Baba by Margaret Craske.
180 pp., Paperback $10.00.

With humor, with love and with incomparable wit, Miss Craske shares wonderful tales of her 60-year relationship with Meher Baba, and preserves for all time an aspect of Meher Baba that easily could have been lost — his divinely delicious sense of humor. Here is Meher Baba as he really was.

Still Dancing with Love: More Stories of Life with Meher Baba by Margaret Craske.
116 pp., Paperback $8.95.

Published a few weeks after her death at 97 in 1990, this book offers more tales of early ashram life and vignettes of other people who heard of Meher Baba through Miss Craske. But most of all there are stories of Meher Baba's direct and indirect influence, of love and obedience, of charm and humor.

DELIA DELEON

The Ocean of Love: My Life with Meher Baba by Delia DeLeon.
256 pp., Paperback $10.00.

A breezy style, wrapped in great thoughtfulness and insight, marks this memoir from one of Meher Baba's earliest western disciples. One of the volume's highlights is Delia's collection of letters, postcards and cables reproduced throughout its pages, giving a strong sense of immediacy, of being in that time when one could be fortunate enough to receive direct communications from Meher Baba.

One of many cables from Meher Baba to Delia reproduced in The Ocean of Love

Later in her parents home, Kitty continues: "Baba asked each of us to come alone for a few moments, to come and talk with him. And I noticed a little tear in his sadra (shirt). He was dressed in a white sadra and he knew — I suppose I didn't mean him to know I was thinking such a thing — of course I was seeing him for the for the first few moments — but, I did see there was a tear in his white sadra. And he got the thought very quickly because he immediately got Meredith Starr who was interpreting for him, to say that I was to go and get a piece of cotton and mend the tear. And then afterwards he said that this was the beginning of further service you'll have to do for me. And I remember that very clearly. That was my first Three Incredible Weeks with Meher Baba: September 11-September 30, 1954 by Malcolm Schloss and Charles Purdom.

178 pp., Paperback $7.95.

A day-by-day diary account of a unique three-week darshan when 20 Western men were invited by Meher Baba to take part in his daily life. The first part of this minutely detailed account is the diary kept by Schloss and Purdom. It is rounded out by shorter, very personal memoirs by others who attended, including Darwin Shaw, Lud Dimpfl, Joseph Harb and Will Backett.

Treasures from the Meher Baba Journals Compiled and edited by Jane Barry Haynes. 246 pp., Illus. with 30 photographs. Paperback $8.95.

Written by a staff of Indian, American, English and Russian disciples then living with Meher Baba in India, the Journals were published monthly from 1938 to 1942. Treasures culls the best accounts of Meher Baba's ashram from that period, including articles by such early western disciples as Kitty Davy, Delia DeLeon, Norina Matchabelli, Nadine Tolstoy, Elizabeth Patterson, Will Backett, excerpts from the diary of F. H. "Chanji" Dadachanji. There are also 32 pages of short quotes by Meher Baba.

A delightful account of Meher Baba's visits to Australia in 1956 and 1958, including practical guidelines for the spiritual life given by Baba at that time.

EXCERPT FROM THE BOOK, PAGE 54.

... Then I asked him if he wished to meet my father-in-law.

He said, "Does he want to come to me?" I ran up to Pop and said, "Baba says, do you want to come to him?" He said, "Oh yes, my word I do." He got up on his crutches and made a step towards Baba, but before he could go any further, Meher Baba was there on the patio. Pop said, "Salam Alekum." Baba through Eruch said, "Alekum Salam." Then Baba embraced him. The thought occurred to me, "If you take one step towards God, God will take ten steps towards you" - A quote from the Koran. This is literally what happened here.

Over The Years With Meher Baba
by Bill Le Page
144 pp., Paperback
$12.00.

This is a wonderful and varied collection of Baba stories, many based on rough notes Bill Le Page made in India over the past twenty years. The reader can open this volume at random and be assured of coming up with a gem of a tale.

Try the story about Baba responding personally to Gaimai Jessawala's need for help in the middle of the night, a touching example of the Avatar personally serving his lovers. Or the young Eruch's experience of arranging his family's going to Meher Baba. Or any of the other delightful stories Bill heard from Eruch in the 1970s. Become absorbed in the letters he received from Baba's sister, Mani, and Francis Brabazon in the 1950s and 1960s, or Chanji's accounts of the Blue Bus tours, and – just because he reminds Bill of Meher Baba – a few stories about Prophet Mohammad. As a bonus, Bill has included thirty-seven pages taken from the long out-of-print Not We But One.

Poetry

Stay With God
by Francis Brabazon.
166 pp., Hardcover
$20.00.

Meher Baba described this book of poetry as "second only in importance to God Speaks." Francis Brabazon, an Australian, who met Meher Baba in New York in 1952 and spent 10 years with Him in India, from 1959 to 1969, presents in this volume a powerful elucidation of illusion and Reality. But its most powerful - almost stunning - section is The Love Song of John Kerry, obviously a poetic account of Francis' own life and spiritual journey.

I Heard God Laughing
by Daniel Ladinsky.
84 pp., Paperback
$14.00.

The title alone is enough to draw a reader to these inspired, inspiring and startling renditions of Hafiz, now one of the most popular poets in the world.

DANIEL LADINSKY

The Subject Tonight is Love
by Daniel Ladinsky.
78 pp., Paperback
$10.00.

Sixty more versions of Hafiz. Dan Ladinsky's work provides what is probably the most approachable Hafiz for westerners.

The Gift
by Daniel Ladinsky.
348 pp., Paperback
$13.95.

A splendid accomplishment and a rich feast of stunning versions of Hafiz in Ladinsky's third collection. Not to be missed.

Songs Grown from Sand and Stones
by Mirek.
154 pp., Paperback
$10.00.

All the fierceness - and the wondrous soft joy - of a man in love with God explodes out of these very personal poems.

Light on Running Water
by Filis Frederick.
140 pp., Paperback
$10.00.

A collection of clear, light and succinct poems by a longtime follower of Meher Baba and founder and editor of The Awakener Magazine.

Processional of Joy
by Malcolm Schloss.
78 pp., Hardcover
$2.50.

Only a few copies are left of the 1946 first edition of "soul songs" by Malcolm Schloss, an early western follower of Meher Baba.
